Trees Fall, Utilities Fail As Storm Lashes Marin

Unseasonal Rain, Wind Pound County Hard

The first storm of the season smashed across Marin today with drenching rains and strong gales, leaving in its wake widespread power blackouts and damage.

Nearly four inches of rain was recorded for a 24-hour period to 8 a.m. today at several points in the county.

In San Rafael, the total for 24 hours to noon today was 4.25 inches. The county fire department at Woodacre recorded 5.44 inches for 24 hours to noon today. In Kent Woodlands, a six-inch fall was recorded to 11 a.m.

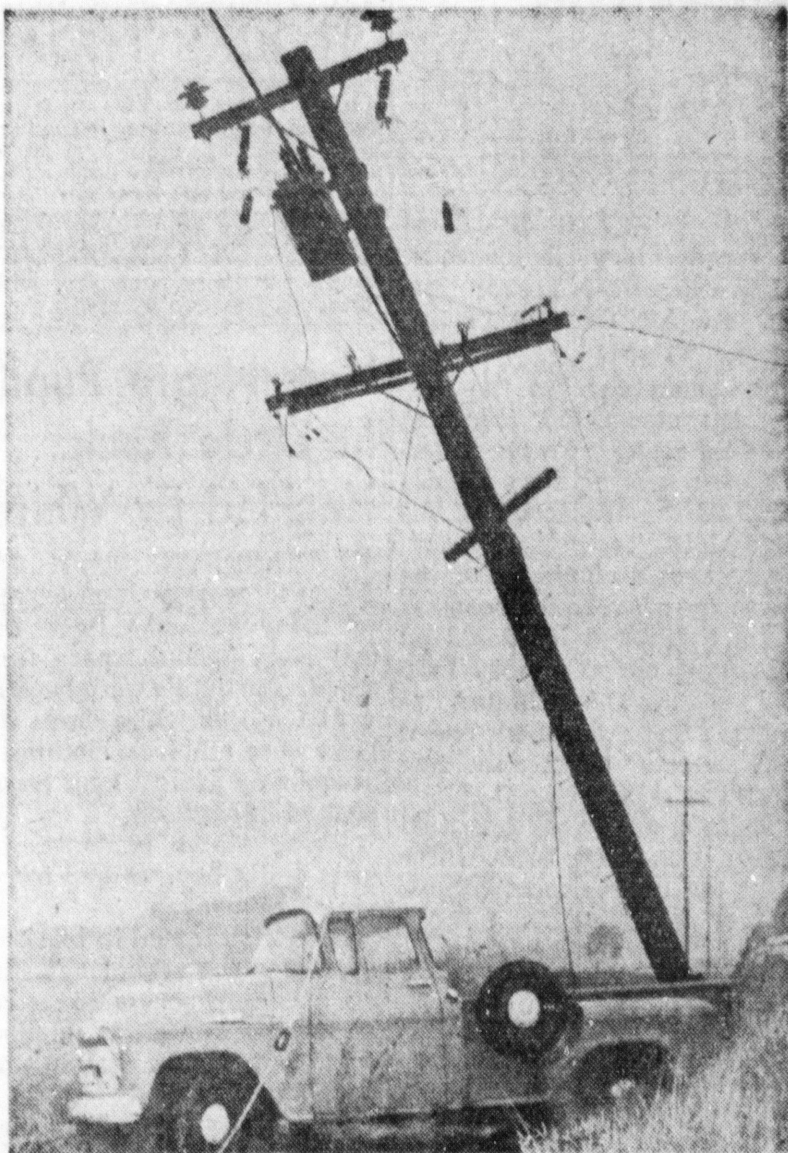

While the rain brought welcome relief to Marin's parched hills and forests, it also clogged storm drains creating floods at street corners and in low areas.

It was Marin's first real rain and storm since last Feb. 16, when the Marin Municipal Water District reported 3.7 inches, and the San Rafael City Hall reported 2.18 inches.

It was an unusually heavy storm for this time of year. The biggest rainfall during recent years in September was 1.8 inches at Lake Lagunitas on Sept. 27, 1957.

U.S. Satellite Goes In Orbit

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (P)—The Vanguard III satellite soared into orbit today and revived sagging U. S. prestige in the space exploration field.

The 100-pound satellite was boosted aloft by the last of the Vanguard rockets. The Vanguard, once the scapegoat for American space failures, thus ended its hard luck history on a triumphant note.

The success followed two straight American space flops. Just 14 hours before, a Thor-Able rocket fizzled in an attempt to place a 265-pound navigation satellite in orbit. On Wednesday, a Jupiter missile carrying mice and frogs on a space flight exploded 1,000 feet above its launching pad.

The flops came while Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev visited this country, basking in the limelight of Sunday's successful Soviet moon strike.

The satellite was the third put up in 11 tries by the Vanguard. It includes the 50-pound payload and the 50-pound third-stage rocket which remained attached.

Its job was to measure the earth's magnetic field, solar X-rays, micrometeorite bombardment and temperatures inside and outside the satellite. Shaped like an ice cream cone, Vanguard III is made of magnesium and fiberglass. It consists of a 20-inch sphere with a 26-inch tube extending from it.

In the tip of the cone is a magnetometer to measure the magnetic field and help locate pockets of dangerous radiation.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced the successful orbit two hours and 50 minutes after launching. It said the new satellite is expected to swing as far out as 2,300 miles in space and as close to the earth as 315 miles, and would remain aloft for 30 to 40 years.

Nikita Urges World Suspend Armed Forces

UNITED NATIONS (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev proposed today that every nation in the world dismantle its armed forces within four years, leaving only police units for internal control.

The Communist leader also proposed to the General Assembly of the United Nations: 1. Establishment of a non-nuclear zone in central Europe. 2. Removal of all foreign troops and liquidation of all bases on foreign territories.

RED-WEST PACT
3. Signature of a non-aggression pact between members of NATO and the Communist Warsaw Pact.

The plan was the bombshell which Khrushchev had promised at the outset of his American visit.

Khrushchev addressed the U.N. after another busy morning in which he drove 100 miles north of New York to the grave of Franklin D. Roosevelt where he laid a wreath and talked with Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

Khrushchev told the world body that he considered his proposals vitally important on the "burning issues which trouble the people."

U.N. PURPOSES

"History knows of no other international organization on which people have pinned such hopes," he said. "Born in the time when the ruins of devastated towns and villages were still smoking, the United Nations expressed the aspirations and proclaimed to be its purpose to save generations from the scourges of war."

Khrushchev called for conclusion of a peace treaty with the two Germanies.

And it was "intolerable," Khrushchev said, that the Communist Chinese government had been "deprived for many years of its lawful rights in the United Nations."

Khrushchev said that "soon or later" the island of Formosa, now the site of the Chinese National government, will be united with the whole of China.

(More news of Khrushchev's U.S. visit is on page 9.)

Flames Rout Two From Marin Home

Fire, fanned by 50-mile-per-hour winds, swept through a Santa Venetia home early today, chasing two women occupants onto a rain-spattered street.

Damage estimated at $20,000

Girls' Slayer Put To Death

Harvey M. Glatman, mild-mannered Los Angeles television repairman and amateur photographer, went calmly to his death at San Quentin Prison today for strangling two models he hired to pose for pictures.

Glatman, who spent the night talking to prison officers of his childhood, without mention of his crimes, said just before he was led to the gas chamber, "It's my own fault."

Prison officials said he ate a good breakfast of eggs, bacon and fried potatoes and last night ate a T-bone steak and finished off his meal with a banana split.

His body will be cremated, according to state law. It was not claimed by his family. He has a mother and an aunt living in Denver. They visited him at the prison about a month ago.

Glatman, 31, pleaded guilty last November to the crimes. He admitted but was not tried for a third killing. He made no effort to contest the death sentence.

Development Unit Maps Finance Plan For Marin County Airport

By DONALD G. DAVIS

The airport committee of the Marin County Industrial Development Foundation yesterday put in flight a plan to get Marin County an airport. It may mean another bond issue election next June.

The flight pattern includes both Novato and San Rafael, and the navigator will be the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

The committee voted to urge the supervisors to make application prior to Nov. 30 for aid funds from the Federal Aviation Agency.

The committee also received the assurance of County Administrator Donald A. Jensen that he will see if the stumbling block to the Novato Airport can be overcome.

And the committee was assured by San Rafael City Manager Dan E. Andersen that a resolution from the city council would be sought supporting the committee's urgent plea for county action on Federal Aviation Authority funds.

was done to the home of Al-gina M. Burkhardt, who fled the house at 54 Vendola drive with her mother, Selma. They were aroused from sleep about 5:27 a.m. by the smell of smoke.

County Fire Chief Charles Reiley directed firefighters who converged on the home after a neighbor, Mrs. Randall Fouch of 39 Vendola drive, reported seeing the flames.

Before the fire was brought under control by about 6:30 a.m., all of the rooms in the two-bedroom residence had been gutted, the roof caved in and the garage partially destroyed. "The roof was on fire when we arrived," said Chief Reiley. He estimated $15,000 damage to the home and $5,000 to its contents.

Fourteen firemen from several county fire stations used six engines to pump water on the flames. High winds threatened to spread the fire to neighboring homes.

Miss Burkhardt and her mother, still in their night clothes, were taken into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Lush at 56 Vendola drive.

A 1955 Mercury automobile was backed out of the garage to safety before firemen arrived.

A crowd of about 40 persons gathered in the rain to watch the firemen at work.

The fire apparently started near a water heater in the garage and spread rapidly through the house, said Chief Reiley. Some clothing had been placed near the heater to dry. It is possible that a draft caused the heater flames to spread to the clothes, he said.

HEROIC MARIN HOUSEWIFE STEMS FLOOD

This morning's rainstorm produced a heroine in Los Ranchitos.

Rain water from a clogged-storm drain started flooding the property of Allen D. Owen at 2 Constance drive shortly before 8 a.m.

Mrs. Owen took a shovel and went to work to open the drain.

About that time, children started to make their way through the downpour to Oliver Hartzell School, just next door.

Shovel in hand, Mrs. Owen kept the drain open, helped children cross Ranchitos road and directed traffic at the dangerous intersection, all at once.

"She ought to have a medal," declared a motorist who saw her in action and called the Independent-Journal.

Storm Strikes Hard On California Coast

SAN FRANCISCO (P)—A blustering storm, the first of the season, brought heavy rains to parched Northern and Central California today.

It was accompanied by high winds that hit gale force at some points.

Two Navy fliers, forced off course by the powerful storm, were killed when their twin-engine Sky Warrior jet plane crashed in a canyon five miles northwest of Napa.

There was snow in the high passes of the Sierra and State Route 89, the loop at Lassen National Park, was closed temporarily.

The forecaster said the rain and wind should diminish by tonight and skies should be partly cloudy Saturday with an occasional shower likely.

Two inches or more of rain was common in Sonoma and Marin Counties. Downtown San Francisco had 1.32 inches up to 9 a.m. Almost an inch fell at Eureka and Crescent City, and 1.50 at Fort Bragg.

By 9 a.m. the storm had spread south to Santa Maria and Fresno.

Gale warnings were flying from Pt. Arena, on the lower Mendocino County coast, to Half Moon Bay, San Mateo County. Southerly winds of 30 to 40 miles an hour were forecast. Small craft warnings were up south of Half Moon Bay.

Several coastal fishing boats were in trouble because of the storm.

The Coast Guard cutter Avoyel took a swamped fishing boat in tow off Eureka today and reported the five crewmen were uninjured.

The commercial trawler was the Mabel, a 65-footer. Gale-swept seas had washed overboard the life raft and all but one life belt.

The fishing boat Leonette, out of San Francisco, reported trouble this morning after a line fouled in the propeller. An 83-foot Coast Guard cutter went to her aid.

Two other fishing craft sank yesterday without loss of life.

The 46-foot Aleutian out of Newport, Ore., sank 150 yards offshore about 20 miles north of Eureka.

The 36-foot Colleen sank 10 miles offshore of Eureka with a ton of fish aboard.

RAIN MAY HALT N.L. 'CRUCIAL'

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Rains pelting San Francisco today made it doubtful that the San Francisco Giants all-important National League pennant race game with the Los Angeles Dodgers would be played tonight.

However, Giant officials said they would hold off announcement of a postponement as long as possible.

General Under Fire In Iceland Relieved

WASHINGTON (AP) — Brig. Gen. Gilbert Pritchard has been relieved of his command in Iceland in the wake of an airport incident that raised Icelandic feelings against American forces there.

Pritchard was commander of the air base at Reykjavik where two Icelandic officials were reported to have been forced by guards to lie in mud puddles. The action was taken at the request of the Icelandic government, an Air Force spokesman said.

Icelandic Ambassador Thor

Thors had made a formal protest to the U.S. State Department. He said American guards at the base had forced the two officials at gunpoint to lie in puddles of water for 10 minutes and threatened to shoot if they opened their mouths.

The contention of the guard was that the two officials had entered a restricted area. Pritchard had been in command for only about two months.

The Air Force spokesman said no new assignment for Pritchard had been decided yet, and no successor appointed.

Chessman Acts To Halt Execution

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Caryl Chessman today filed a court action to halt his execution, now set for Oct. 23 in San Quentin Prison.

Chessman charges the prosecution committed fraud in bringing Stanley Fraser to testify at a hearing into the validity of the transcript of his original trial.

Chessman's challenge of the transcript involved hearings which postponed his death on kidnapping charges more than 10 years. The hearing at which Fraser testified ended with superior court upholding the transcript.

Today's action alleges that Fraser was paid $750, three times the usual expert witness fee or testifying as a short-hand expert, and accuses Fraser of being an alcoholic.

New Negro Pupils In Little Rock Heckled By Whites

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Token integration was expanded today at Little Rock Central High School where three new Negro pupils were heckled. About 100 white boys and girls wore all-black clothing to school as a protest over expansion of integration.

Three white students, two girls and a boy, walked out after classes began.

Six girls dressed in black did not enter the school but stood on a corner across the street and yelled for other pupils to come out. Half a dozen white boys did.

Principal Jess Matthews emerged from the school and went to the group of shouting girls.

The girls told him their parents had instructed them not to enter the school until they saw whether trouble developed. Matthews said the parents would have to talk to him before the girls could go to Central again.

Marin Pistol Team Enters Shooting Match Tomorrow

Five top sharpshooters from the sheriff's office, led by Rangemaster H. O. Peters, headed to Merced today to compete in a statewide pistol match tomorrow.

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos said he is confident his men will make a good showing against the state's best shooters, who will gather from the various sheriff's offices, police departments, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Treasury Department.

Members of the Marin sheriff's team are Sgt. Sidney Weber (team captain), Inspector Carl Sears, Sgt. Edward Levine and Deputies Arthur Wiggins and Charles Rester.

All are master shooters, with a shooting record that averages about 98 per cent.

The team plans to return tomorrow night.

Jury Awards $40,140 For Marin Damsite

Owners of the Garzoli ranch near Nicasio, where a new dam will be built, were awarded $40,140 for their land and for severance damages last night by a Marin Superior Court jury.

A breakdown of the jury verdict shows $34,140 for 150 acres of land (this amount includes about $10,000 for gravel in a creek bed) and $6,000 for severance damage to the rest of the Garzoli property.

In addition, Paul E. and Jane L. Garzoli, owners of the ranch, will get $31,000 for improvements. This amount was agreed upon by both parties.

ASKED MORE
The Garzolis' testimony indicated values of $47,000 for the 150 acres and $33,000 for severance, plus the $31,000 for improvements agreed upon outside of court.

The jurors began hearing the case on Aug. 25 before Judge Jordan L. Martinelli. They went into deliberation yesterday noon and reached their verdict at 11 o'clock last night.

The Marin Municipal Water District needs the Garzoli land for its new Nicasio dam, a major project authorized by the voters in a 1956 bond issue. The dam will be located on the Pt. Reyes-Petaluma road and on the Garzoli property northwest of Nicasio.

FIRST SUIT
This is the first condemnation action in the water district's acquisition of property for the dam and a giant lake which will cover about 1,500 acres.

Attorneys Samuel W. Gardner and William T. Bagley argued for the water district. The Garzolis were represented by Roger Anderson of San Francisco.

"The jury verdict indicating a value of about $160 per acre seems to be a fair result," said attorney Bagley.

"The landowners' claimed value approximating $225 per acre, which we considered very high for this rather rough farm land."

Marin Couple Hurt In Two-Car Crash

A Fairfax husband and wife were injured in a two-car accident on Highway 101 atop the Alto hill at 7:30 a.m. today.

Lawrence Burke, 49, of 67 Mountain View road, Fairfax, was driving north with his wife, Barbara, 32, when his car was struck from the right side by a northbound car driven by Billy M. Thomas, 25, of Bldg. A19, Apt. 928, Marin City, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Burke's knees were skinned. His wife was treated at Marin General Hospital for bruises and scratches on face and right knee after being taken there by Marin Ambulance. Thomas said he was forced into the Burke car by a third vehicle which cut in front of him.

The accident at Park Presidio drive and Clement street snarled morning rush hour traffic 30 minutes, the Associated Press reported.

San Francisco police said a car driven by Willie Parker, 40, San Francisco, went through a red light and hit Rosales' car. The latter car snapped a traffic signal pole and ended up on a lawn.

Gustavo Rosales, 24, of 536 D street, San Rafael, suffered severe head injuries today as he was thrown from his automobile in an intersection collision in San Francisco.

School Merger Called Means Of Tax Saving

North Marinites were told last night they should look to consolidation of school districts, rather than to eventual industrial development, for relief of mounting school taxes.

Development of industry in the area may be many years away, 12 persons attending the third and final hearings on unification of Novato and San Jose School Districts agreed.

Moreover, said Mrs. Helen Wallace, chairman of the County Committee on School District Organization, industry — when it comes — would benefit San Jose District residents only if the two districts are merged. Land zoned for industry is in the Novato district.

"My child would have to travel just about as far to Novato High School as he now does to San Rafael," one San Jose district resident complained at the hearing at Loma Verde School.

Mrs. Wallace emphasized that although she believes that a unified district would serve to the advantage of both Novato and San Jose areas, "I am not trying to sell it to anyone — only to bring the facts before the people."

An election to settle the issue will be held Sept. 29.

Fishing-Hole Fight Charges Dismissed

Stanley E. Giffin, 41, of 36 Jefferson avenue, Santa Venetia, who grappled with a San Francisco man in an argument over a fishing hole at Taylor Park last month, was freed today of assault and battery charges.

Judge Harold J. Haley found Giffin innocent and dismissed the case this morning. Testimony showed Giffin and C. Delmar Hood of San Francisco had grappled in the water on Aug. 23. Each accused the other of starting the fight.

School Merger Called Means Of Tax Saving

North Marinites were told last night they should look to consolidation of school districts, rather than to eventual industrial development, for relief of mounting school taxes.

Development of industry in the area may be many years away, 12 persons attending the third and final hearings on unification of Novato and San Jose School Districts agreed.

Moreover, said Mrs. Helen Wallace, chairman of the County Committee on School District Organization, industry — when it comes — would benefit San Jose District residents only if the two districts are merged. Land zoned for industry is in the Novato district.

"My child would have to travel just about as far to Novato High School as he now does to San Rafael," one San Jose district resident complained at the hearing at Loma Verde School.

Mrs. Wallace emphasized that although she believes that a unified district would serve to the advantage of both Novato and San Jose areas, "I am not trying to sell it to anyone — only to bring the facts before the people."

An election to settle the issue will be held Sept. 29.

Fishing-Hole Fight Charges Dismissed

Stanley E. Giffin, 41, of 36 Jefferson avenue, Santa Venetia, who grappled with a San Francisco man in an argument over a fishing hole at Taylor Park last month, was freed today of assault and battery charges.

Judge Harold J. Haley found Giffin innocent and dismissed the case this morning. Testimony showed Giffin and C. Delmar Hood of San Francisco had grappled in the water on Aug. 23. Each accused the other of starting the fight.

New State Laws In Effect Today

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Several thousand new state laws went into operation today, affecting things from abalone to zoning. Breaking some of the new laws could cost you a fine, a jail term, or civil damages, or all three. Ignorance of the law is no excuse.

The new statutes signed by the governor includes new taxes which you're already paying, and increased welfare benefits which won't start until Jan. 1. The 65 mph speed limit also starts New Years Day.

The maximum unemployment insurance benefit goes up from $40 to $55 a week for new claimants starting today. The top disability insurance increases from $50 to $65 a week starting Jan. 1.

Among other laws effective today, here are some to watch: Fair employment Practices Act—Up to six months in jail and $500 fine for job discrimination because of race, religion or ancestry.

Publicly Assisted Housing Act—Racial or religious discrimination in selling or renting most publicly assisted housing subjects you to a minimum of $500 civil damages.

NEW PENALTY

Crime Cost, Like Living Cost, Rising

Crime never did pay, but it's going to be even more costly beginning today.

A new section of the state Penal Code, which goes into effect today, requires a 5 per cent penalty assessment on all fines and bails paid in criminal cases, except fines and bails for violations of the Vehicle Code or the state Fish and Game Code.

The 5 per cent penalty will be used for a peace officers' training fund.

Bail and fine for drunken driving or other Vehicle Code violations will remain the same. Bail and fine for catching more than your limit of fish and for other fish and game violations will also remain unchanged. But bail and fine for all other crimes — from disturbing the peace to murder — will bring the 5 per cent added penalty.

Another statewide change that goes into effect today is a complete overhaul of the California Vehicle Code. In the old code, violations were identified by numbers with three digits. For example, the drunken driving section was 502. Under the new code, the sections are numbered in five digits. Drunken driving is now identified by 23102A.

The change will have little or no effect on the violators, but court clerks and police officers will be up against a whole new set of code sections to learn.

Air Force Promotes San Rafael Airman

Steven Gary Woodall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gale Woodall of 2 Hamilton court, San Rafael, has been promoted to airman second class after less than a year's service in the Air Force.

Woodall is stationed at Shaw Air Force Base near Sumter, S.C., and is an aerial and still photographer. He is married to the former Maureen Corr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Corr of Black Point.

Unruh Civil Rights Act—Increases the damages for discrimination at places of public accommodation from $100 to $250, and extends the antidiscrimination law to all business establishments.

Here are home of the don'ts: If you're a college fraternity man, don't haze the pledges. It could forfeit your scholarship and your degree.

If you have been drinking, don't fly or try to repair an airplane. It could cost $1,000 fine and six months in jail.

Don't go sightseeing at a disaster scene; don't falsely pose as an incumbent in a political campaign; don't carry a "gravity" knife; don't let your house trailer swerve or whip about on the highway; don't deliver clothes in a plastic bag unless it's labelled that it could kill a child . . .

Don't grind up hearts into hamburger you sell; don't shoot incendiary bullets into the woods; don't phone a bomb hoax to a telephone operator . . .

Don't drive a self-propelled wheelchair on the street or highway without a special driver's license; don't employ an unlicensed automobile salesman; don't drive below the minimum speed posted on highway signs; don't drive a farm labor bus over 45 m.p.h.

Don't drive under the combined influence of intoxicating liquor and any drug; don't drive wearing sun glasses with a temple width of one-half inch or more . . .

Don't X-ray feet unless you're a doctor, a person practicing a healing art or a trained technician.

There are some things you can do that weren't always legal before:

If you're a teacher, you can spank unruly pupils. You can drive a big truck 50 m.p.h. on a four-lane highway—five miles an hour faster than before.

You can catch red abalone not less than seven and three-quarters, rather than eight inches in diameter.

EXPERIENCED WORKER APPLIES FOR STATE JOB—TURNED DOWN

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Comes now a Chico youngster with an offer of help for Gov. Edmund G. Brown — who has rats in his house and has been having bad luck with cats.

Bob Bennett of Chico wrote Brown offering to loan his cat Snowball for a weekend to help catch the rats in the executive mansion. Bob says Snowball is also good on tree squirrels, moles and gophers.

"My dad is a Republican but he said it would be all right with him and there would be no charge except I would have to stay with Snowball," Bob wrote.

The governor, who had to get a new rat when the first delivered six kittens, declined the offer, but said:

"Sometime when you and your dad are in Sacramento, I hope you will drop in and see me because I would like to meet the Republican who has such an enterprising, smart boy as you are."

Methodist Church Sets Supper For Tonight

With the commission on missions as host, the first family night potluck supper of the fall season will be held at 7 o'clock tonight at the San Rafael Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lucile Schoen, chairman, said color slides taken by Rev. Donald H. Baldwin and his son, Donald, on their recent trip around the world will be shown. A voluntary offering will be used for a special mission project.

Before he discovered the North Pole, Adm. Robert E. Peary wrote magazine articles about the tropics, especially about Nicaragua which he explored.

Parents Of Kids Who Started Fire Face Suit

San Rafael property owners are suing for $13,750 against parents of three youngsters who set a grass fire that damaged property on Tamal Vista drive last year.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Dewey and Nona Sapp, who have property at 155 Tamal Vista drive, filed the suit yesterday in Marin Superior Court. They are represented by Wallace S. Myers and Robert P. Praetzel of San Anselmo.

The suit alleges that the parents were negligent in allowing their youngsters, aged 6 to 9, to play with matches.

The fire, which occurred on Sept. 18, 1958, along Fifth avenue, spread upward into the hills and burned shrubs, trees, lumber and rabbit hutchers owned by the Deweys and Miss Sapp. The Deweys seek $12,500, and Miss Sapp asks for $1,250.

Anthony Eden III With High Fever

PEWSEY, England (AP)—Sir Anthony Eden, 62, is suffering from a severe attack of fever, his secretary said today.

A similar attack in 1957 preceded an operation on the former prime minister to correct a bile duct condition.

He resigned as prime minister in January, 1957, on grounds of ill health after the abortive British-French invasion of Suez and was succeeded by Harold Macmillan.

Woman, Already In Jail, Draws Judge's Warning

Mrs. Martha Anne DeBorger, 35, wife of a Hamilton Air Force Base major, was led out of county jail yesterday for a divorce battle in court, argued with both the judge and her estranged husband, and was led back to jail in the evening.

Mrs. DeBorger is trying to get alimony from Maj. Arthur J. DeBorger, 35, assistant director of operations at Hamilton. During her court appearance she shouted and shook her finger at Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court. The judge warned that she was flirting with another contempt citation.

STORM

shortly after 1 a.m. today to cause substantial tidal flooding.

The weatherman predicted clouds—and perhaps more rain—tomorrow.

The wind swept leaves from trees and gushing rain carried them to storm sewer outlets. Maintenance crews throughout the county were busy unclogging the drains.

The San Rafael Department of Public Works reported flooding along Second street where storm drains were clogged. A spokesman said the newly installed drain system along Fifth avenue "was working fine."

At least six persons were injured as automobiles skidded on rain-slicked roads.

Hundred of homes were blacked out as power lines snapped under falling tree branches. Scores of telephones also were put out of order as water seeped into aerial cables.

Both Pacific Gas and Electric Co. and Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. said crews were called out of bed, some of them as early as 4 a.m., to put lines back in working order. Much of the power was restored by breakfast time, and utility spokesman said they hoped all power and telephones would be working early this afternoon.

Power was off to about 75 homes in the Cascade and Deer Park area of Fairfax from 5:30 to 7:30 a.m., and again from 10:15 to 11:30 a.m. For a time power was off to the whole of Fairfax as crews fought to get

READY TO TIP — A 1,600-pound trailer lies precariously on its side at 145 Ridgeway, Fairfax, after wind blew it over this morning. The trailer the lines in order. The break happened as a tree fell at Frustuck avenue and Cascade drive.

At Kent avenue and Suffield in Fairfax another tree fell and cut off power to approximately 40 homes from 6 a.m. to 7:20 a.m.

In San Rafael trees fell at Lincoln avenue and Pacheco. A tree fell on the sidewalk at Third street and Grand avenue, and a pine tree fell and knocked down a power pole and wire near the Pierce Building on First street.

Also in San Rafael, a large fig tree in the backyard of Mrs. Nellie Liljenquist at 311 C street was uprooted and blew over the fence into the neighboring yard of Mrs. Rosa Garatti at 333 C street.

Other trees blew down at Fifth and Lincoln avenues and at Harcourt and I streets in San Rafael; a fence for a construction project at the corner of Fourth and D street fell over and washed into the middle of Fourth street. Wind picked up an Air Force truck top beside Francisco boulevard and dumped it onto two cars.

A large tree blew down in front of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament on San Pedro road in Santa Venetia and blocked traffic for nearly an hour.

Another tree fell on Foster avenue in Kentfield.

Power went off on Center street at 6:30 a.m. About 100 homes in the areas east of Lincoln avenue in San Rafael were without power at the same time.

In Lucas Valley approximately 25 homes were without power from around midnight to 6 a.m.

For about an hour around midnight more than 500 homes were without power in the Shady lane area of Ross and Kentfield.

Five crews of telephone workers were routed out of bed at 5 a.m. to repair water-soaked lines in Kentfield, Mill Valley and San Rafael.

The Kentfield trouble was started by burned sheathing as power line were hit by a falling tree on Shady lane in Ross.

Approximately 75 homes were without telephone service from 4:30 a.m. to noon. Another 59 telephones were without service in the West End and Sun Valley areas of San Rafael. In the canyon area of East Blithedale avenue, Mill Valley, another 63 telephone subscribers were without service.

A telephone company spokesman said several other telephones were put out of service when individual service lines broke.

In Sausalito, the two-master 90-foot schooner Shamrock was pulled by a tug to deeper water because wind-whipped choppy bay water threatened to drag the boat from its anchorage.

Along other areas of Marin waterfront there apparently was little or no damage, but yacht harbor crews hauled boats from the water.

Two roofs were blown partially off homes at 408 Shoreline highway and 604 Wanda lane in Tamalpais Valley.

Also in Sausalito the FM radio station KDFC used its own standby power as a power line snapped.

Traffic in cities and along Highway 101 was sluggish. Cars were hub deep in muddy debris-strewn water.

In Fairfax, a 16-foot house trailer was swept from a yard at 145 Ridgeway avenue, knocked to its side, and pushed by the wind to a crest overlooking the home of Mrs. Arthur Shapiro at 151 Ridgeway.

The trailer, all furnished for a vacation, belongs to K. W. Terry. Mrs. Terry drives a school bus for the Kentfield Elementary School District.

Harry DeMooy of Crest Marin reported debris and weeds clogged runoff channels in Tamalpais Valley. He planned to organize a volunteer cleaning crew if the county was unable to do the job.

In Terra Linda, the big drainage ditch threatened to overflow.

Mrs. Richard Hardin of 90 W. Crescent drive, San Rafael, said a 6-by-12-foot window "just exploded" at their home at 6 a.m. "I thought an atomic bomb had dropped," she said.

Several homes on Coleman drive in San Rafael were flooded by muddy water coming downhill from homesites excavated for the Amile subdivision.

At 1:08 a.m. in Novato a power pole caught fire on the William Q. Wright property beside Highway 101. Firemen said it was caused by arcing resulting from a combination of dust and rain.

San Rafael firemen answered a call at 7:50 a.m. at Linden and Lincoln avenues when 12-year-old Loredana Gandolfi turned in a fire box alarm. She led firemen to her home at 1 Brookdale avenue where the garage was flooded from a back-up storm drain.

As Mrs. Christopher Forwood of 21 Castle Rock drive, Mill Valley left home at about 8 a.m. today to take her daughter, Venetia, to work and her daughter, Miranda, to school, their car was hit by a falling tree at the intersection of Castle Rock and Sequoia.

Mrs. Forwood and her daughters were not injured.

Power was off in parts of Novato from two to five hours when a wire fell on Novato boulevard between Eucalyptus and Sutor. A service line fell on Ruhlman lane. PG&E said a truck hit a pole south of Laurel on Highway 101 and power was shut off again for about an hour.

Other rainfall figures for 24 hours to 8 a.m. were:

San Anselmo, 3.57; Bolinas, 2; Kentfield, 3.85; Larkspur (Chevy Chase), 2.55; Larkspur (sewage treatment plant), 2.51; Mill Valley, 1.98; Belvedere, 1.34; Tamalpais Valley, 1.65; Mt. Tamalpais Summit, 3.53; Strawberry, 2.17; Muir Woods, 1.86; Novato, 1.65; Stafford Dam, 2.03; Bon Tempe dam, 2.25; Lake Lagunitas, 3.25; Phoenix Lake, 3.90.

Drake High's Power Off For 2 Hours

Teachers at Sir Francis Drake High School had to synchronize their watches like bomber pilots preparing for a raid today, after electric power at the school went out at 10:25 a.m.

The power failure was attributed to the storm. Pacific Gas and Electric Co. restored electricity at 12:15 p.m.

Not only did the lights go out and electric clocks stop, but lights and buzzer on the school's telephone switchboard went off—so nobody could answer incoming calls, reported Principal Harold Allison.

Classes went on as usual, however, being dismissed and called by the teachers' synchronized watches.

Legal Knots Snarl Tract's Sewer Hookup

San Rafael Sanitation Commissioners yesterday decided that legal problems must be ironed out before sewer connections can be approved for a new 100-lot subdivision in the Glenwood area in East San Rafael.

Developer Gerald Hoytt and engineer Beverly Whitlow appeared before the commission to ask for sewer connections for their proposed Seaview Estates subdivision in the foothills east of the end of Knight drive.

The problem arises because the new subdivision will have to use sewer lines installed at the time John P. Stegge put in the first unit of his Glenwood subdivision, then went bankrupt. Sanitation District Administrator Norris Rawles explained that Stegge's lines are reserved for additional Glenwood subdivisions which were never built.

The sanitation commission referred the matter to County Counsel Leland H. Jordan to determine whether Seaview Estates should be allowed to connect to the Stegge lines.

The commissioners also approved an agreement between the sanitation district and the city, which permits sanitation plant operators Frank Keegan and John Barry to participate in the city health insurance plan.

Projects Reviewed

The Sausalito Recreation Commission last night reviewed the status of a series of smaller projects throughout the city but took no formal action on new items, according to Chairman John Minton.

SLAYER

was told by Superior Court Judge John A. Hewicker his crimes, committed in San Diego County, were "so revolting there is only one penalty—the death penalty."

He entered the gas chamber at 10:04 a.m., and was pronounced dead eight minutes later.

Glatman was captured when a fourth intended young woman a victim fought him off and jumped from his car.

He rejected a jury trial and pleaded guilty of the rape slayings of Mrs. Ruth Rita Mercado, 24, and Mrs. Shirley Ann Bridgeford, 24, Los Angeles models.

He also admitted raping and strangling Judith Ann Dull, 19, West Hollywood model, in Riverside County.

On the pretext he was photographing them for crime magazines, Glatman bound and gagged his victims. He raped them and then they were slowly strangled.

Mrs. Alice Jolliff of Sun Valley, mother of Mrs. Bridgeford, asked to witness the execution of her daughter's slayer. Prison officials denied Mrs. Jolliff's request, saying women were not allowed to attend executions.

"I would like to be there when Glatman's finish comes," Mrs. Jolliff wrote.

"I'll never get over Shirley's brutal death. It won't hurt me to see him suffer because I won't feel a thing where he is concerned."

High School Boys Run Away By Car

Four teen-aged boys from the Mill Valley area cut high school yesterday and vanished for points unknown in a car, sheriff's deputies reported today.

One youth, Gene Emmons Williams, 17, of 28 Plaza drive, left a note to his parents. "I'm just going to try it on my own for a while. Don't worry. I'll be okay," the note read.

They are believed riding in a 1952 Chevrolet owned by Michael Wyman, 16, of 10 Park avenue. The other missing youths are John Charles Albachten, 18, of 129 Sunnyside avenue, and Jerome Aloysius Collin, 16, of 253 Ricardo road.

Friends of the youths told officers the four indicated they were headed toward Los Angeles.

Visitor Dies In Belveron Gardens

Mrs. Emma Weaver, visiting Marin from her home in Wichita, Kan., died unexpectedly last night at the home of her niece, Mrs. C. M. Sellards at 12 Apollo road, Belveron Gardens. She had arrived only a few hours earlier. She was 82.

Apparent cause of death was heart failure. She had a history of heart trouble, according to her niece.

She was a native of Missouri. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Peacock of Wichita.

Funeral services will be held in Wichita, with local arrangements being made by Russell and Gooch funeral chapel in Mill Valley.

Doctor's Party Line

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The medical profession is about to be introduced to a "party-line" stethoscope that will allow as many as four doctors to listen in on a patient's chest sounds at the same time.

Maico Electronics, Inc., which designed the stethoscope, says it is transistorized to amplify heart and chest sounds 10,000 times.

Interment will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno, at 11:15 a.m. Recitation of the Rosary at 8 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 20. (9/16-17-18-19)

Job Total At Record High

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Civilian employment in California has climbed to a new record for the third straight month, and unemployment is at the lowest point in almost two years.

Two state agencies reported today that mid-August employment in the state reached an all-time high of 5,959,000—up 76,000 from July and 204,000 from a year ago.

Unemployment dropped to 212,000, or 3.4 per cent of the labor force, the lowest point since October 1957. A year ago, 335,000 were jobless—a rate of 5.5 per cent.

Public School May Not Use Facilities Of Race-Ban Club

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A California high school cannot use a private club's pool for its swimming team so long as Negro students are barred, according to a ruling by Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk.

Mosk ruled against an arrangement entered into by the John Swett High School in Crockett. The school, having no swimming pool, used the facilities of the Crockett Club, a privately-owned men's residential and social club.

The club permitted only white members of the team to become junior members and use the club pool.

Mosk's ruling yesterday said that in the light of recent U.S. Supreme Court decisions on school segregation, the arrangement was unconstitutional.

Africa Talk Given To Women Voters

"Emerging Africa" was the subject of a talk by Mary Louise Hooper, only white person ever to have worked inside the all-Negro African National Congress, which proved the highlight of yesterday's first fall meeting of the Mill Valley League of Women Voters.

Mrs. Hooper, an American Quaker, lived from 1955 to 1957 in South Africa, where she spent some time in jail as a supporter of the non-violent struggle for voting rights and equal privileges for all races.

She represented the African National Congress of South Africa as a delegate to the All-African People's Conference held in 1958 in Ghana. She is now West Coast representative of the South African defense fund.

Mrs. Hooper described problems of the rapidly developing continent of 230 million inhabitants.

She listed as problems, common to both predominantly Arab North Africa and Negro South Africa, poverty, lack of education, technical backwardness and the need for all states to integrate their national freedom movements.

Interested especially in the problems of "Black Africa," Mrs. Hooper mentioned tribalism, the many languages which prevent communication, and chieftainship. The solution for the latter, she suggested, might be a "House of Lords" for the chiefs, while the real work would be done by a parliament.

Artificial political division, such as the division of one people into three Somalia states, she recalled, is "a great obstacle."

Needs of the emerging states, she went on, are trained personnel, such as doctors, engineers, teachers; technical equipment, capital for development, and above all food, which she recommended the United States provide from its vast surpluses. "As the world's richest nation, we have the moral responsibility to help Africans through our foreign aid program, and on the practical side is that it is smart politics," said Mrs. Hooper. Russia is not sleeping in this respect, she pointed out.

Dutch philosopher Spinoza (1632-1677) said, "Minds are not conquered by arms, but by love and generosity."

There is still a lot of good will in Africa for the United States, she declared, in spite of three things: this country's treatment of its Negro minority, its support of the French in the Algerian crisis, and lack of interest in the South African oppressions.

Speaking with personal knowledge of "unbelievable atrocities" in South Africa, Mrs. Hooper warned that there is a point where such things cease to be internal affairs—as in the case of the Jews under Hitler.

"In both moral and practical levels, you had better help Africa," the speaker concluded. Held at the Mill Valley Golf clubhouse, the meeting convened with discussion of "A Look at the League's Year."

It was decided that workshops will be held on foreign policy and local planning and that the group will work with the San Anselmo League on national and state water problems.

Mrs. Martin Collor said that the Mill Valley planning Workshop will be held on Oct. 7 in the Mill Valley library.

BIRD IN ANNUAL TREK SOUTH-VIA AIRLINER

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A hummingbird which forgot to migrate is getting an airliner lift from the chilly north to Florida.

Audubon Society officials in Miami have prepared a warm reception for the tiny bird, due today by plane. Its $4 fare was paid by Mrs. Eugenia M. Moody, 75, vice president of the North Woodstock, Vt., Humane Society. The $4 represented shipping charges on the bird and its cage.

Mrs. Moody found the hummingbird half-frozen.

Film Pair To Wed

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Actor Rod Steiger, 34, announced today that he and actress Claire Bloom, 28, will get married in the next few days.

The couple who co-starred in the Broadway play "Rashomon" took out a marriage license yesterday in Ventura. It will be Steiger's second marriage. Miss Bloom has not been wed before.

Florida boasts nearly 1,400 hotels.

Two Marinites Injured As Car Hits Puddle, Steel Pole

Two persons were injured early today when the car they were riding in hit a rain puddle and smashed into a steel pole on Highway 101.

Reported in satisfactory condition at San Rafael General Hospital were Valerie Ann Mooney, 20, of 155 Camino de Herrera, San Anselmo, and Richard Edward Chapman, 21, of 330 G street, San Rafael.

Miss Mooney suffered a fracture of the lower leg, cuts to her left eyelid and scalp. Chapman, driver of the car, suffered cuts on his nose.

The accident happened at 12:15 a.m. just south of the Irwin street access road on Highway 101 as Chapman and Miss Mooney were returning trol. The car hit a steel fence and pole. The front and sides of the car were damaged. It was towed to a garage and Chapman and Miss Mooney were taken to the hospital by United Ambulance.

The average car was driven 8,070 miles last year.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

2 Favorites Back At Le Chateau; New Masterpiece At Fleur d'Lys

"Have you heard about Le Chateau?" my friend asked. "The crab is back again."

"You mean Les Johnson?" I answered irreverently. "Yeah, I heard."

This exchange wasn't meant the way it sounded. My informant was referring to the Alaska crab supreme, and I had just naturally associated it with Les, who prepares it in a manner like which there is no other. Far be it from me to look upon him as a crab. The reason he acts that way sometimes—well, let's just say he's fussy. And any one with his skill in cooking has a right to be fussy.

Les is back from his operation 20 pounds lighter, and there's no happier man than Scotty MacKinnon, his salad man. Scotty celebrated his 70th birthday this week and Les's return was by way of being a birthday present—they've been working together 12 years.

So if you've been looking forward to one of Les's special meals—Alaska crab supreme, lobster, duck l'Orange—now's the time.

SOMETHING TO DELIGHT the gourmet has been created by master chef Philibert Pretet of Fleur d'Lys, and is prepared in front of the customer with finesse and attention to detail. It is called Rognon D'Agneau Liegeois—lamb kidneys sautéed and served with sour cream and mushrooms.

Ben Alexander of TV fame found it so delicious during a recent visit to the San Anselmo haut dining he's caused other customers to partake with equal enthusiasm.

Other suggested delicacies are the Supreme de Volaille—breast of chicken stuffed with cheese and baked, and the Truite Farci—trout that has been split, deboned and stuffed with herbs. The latter I have tried and thoroughly enjoyed.

Electric sign at the foot of Spaulding avenue now indicates proper entrance to this one way street which Robert Charles and manager Henri Warren of the Fleur d'Lys hope the City of San Anselmo will agree to illuminate throughout its entire circle from entree to sortie.

THIS HAS NOTHING to do with food, but Lee Crosby has played for many a Marin dinary, and Suzanne Summers, Jaguar recording vocalist, has covered the night spots, too.

They're both to be heard in "Jazz at the Gate" which will blazon from the Gate Theater in Sausalito Sunday afternoons, starting this weekend. Two performances—1:30 and 3:45 p.m. Lee is master of ceremonies, and Suzanne, of course, does the vocals.

Along with them is an impressive list of true jazz artists—Bill Ericson, trumpet; Dick Oxtot, banjo; Burt Bales, piano; Frank (Big Boy) Goudie, clarinet; Bob Mielkie, trombone, and Bob Ossibin, long with Kid Ory.

Two hundred seats available—none reserved.

RETURN OF CHEF Claude Booth to Mission Inn portends menu changes and additions which should be good to the taste. Claude plans a different menu every day with special billing to sweetbreads, turkey, roast leg of lamb, prime rib, shrimp Creole, boneless fried chicken New Orleans, and his baked crab Imperial.

One of his extra specials—and I just found it out—is the boneless, breaded breast of chicken Kiev, truly a culinary delight. Chicken breasts are stuffed with butter and the trick in cooking is to keep the butter inside until it reaches the customer—it's served at some swank dinner houses. Claude's aim is to bring it with in every man's reach.

Regular Italian dishes to continue on the bill of fare.

Hours are now from 11 to 11, with particular attention to building up the dinner trade.

I'VE HEARD IT SAID, and it's entirely likely, that a man could make a fair success serving only chicken. In a way it's symbolical of good eating, whence comes the expression "a chicken in every pot."

Among other dishes popular at the Ranch House in San Anselmo, chicken is still a big drawing card, and Don McLaughlin serves it two ways.

Barbecued—this is a small whole chicken, with onion rings and baked potato. Fried—half of a larger bird, flavored with wine. Neither is overly pretentious, but well prepared and plain good eating.

PRACTICING UP ON THEIR CATCHING

Mrs. Eleanore Cain and Charles West demonstrate tricky art of catching table tennis balls at Corte Madera Center, where Mrs. Cain is employed by Thrifty Drug Store and West manages W. T. Grant Co. store. Nearly 900 balls, each redeemable for valuable prize, will be dropped on center from helicopter at 11 a. m. tomorrow. Event is part of shopping center's first anniversary celebration. (Ken Molino photo)

Playhouse Cast Meets, Overcomes 2 Obstacles

By DON KEOWN

In the initial run at Sausalito's Gate Playhouse this past weekend the cast of "Time Remembered" met two big obstacles—an exceedingly difficult vehicle for a little theater group to put across, and some disappointingly small audiences—and overcame both.

The production must be acclaimed an artistic, if not a box office, success on the basis of its first three presentations.

And both the product and the attendance should improve as the Jean Anouilh play continues its run including three performances tonight, Saturday and Sunday starting at 8:30 p.m.

The major credit for the play's success should be attributed to three factors:

1. The courage of director A. J. Esta and co-producers Leslie Abbott and Rich Safina in selecting an "off-beat" dramatic vehicle certain to have smaller box office appeal than its highly successful predecessor, the rollicking musical "On the Town," and yet offering the type of challenge and experience which makes little theater work worthwhile for the participants. Abbott says the group has other surefire musicals, including the next production, "Annie Get Your Gun," on tap, but is determined to also strive for breadth and variety in its scheduling.

2. The extremely attractive stage setting as worked out by Robert Skeoch and his staff.

3. And the performance of June Mathias, an "import" from the East, who was superb in the difficult role of the duchess played on Broadway by Helen Hayes.

We were a bit uneasy with what seemed some uneven acting by Miss Mathias at the outset, but she soon found herself, got better and better as the play progressed, and walked away with top honors for the evening.

It would be unfair, however, to indicate that her portrayal was the only good one. Fred Romagnolo was especially delightful in a lesser role. Cute Stefani Perez-Guerra did very well as the leading lady, particularly in the last act. Anthony Bardusk was a handsome and competent leading man. And Ed Piley, in a comedy role, is another worthy of special mention.

Nor should Esta's adept direction be neglected.

We thought the opening perhaps a bit confusing for one not familiar with the play, and portions of the night club scene in the closing act seemed to border somewhat on the tedious "talky." But those are the faults, if they are such, of the play, not Esta and his cast. And for the most part "Time Remembered" was a pleasing combination of light-hearted, tongue-in-cheek humor, interspersed with some surprising, penetrating social satire, all against a fairy-tale backdrop.

MARIN MOVIE ROUNDUP

'Hole In Head' Opens Sunday At Rafael

By LESLIE DARD
Marin's movie-goer's guide to the weekend film fare:

RAFAEL THEATER

"A Hole in the Head" (color) is a warm-hearted little essay—opening Sunday—on what affection can be between a captivating youngster (Eddie Hodges) and his daddy (Frank Sinatra).

What makes this such a down-to-earth family film, we suspect, is the direction of Frank Capra.

Sinatra has been through a lifetime of unproductive promotions and as the film opens is running a ramshackle hotel, which he's about to lose. He finally swallows his pride and asks his disapproving brother (Edward G. Robinson) and sister (Thelma Ritter) for help.

In addition, there's a dame (Carolyn Jones) who's a recklessly mad rowdy, and a rich widow (Eleanor Parker), whom Robinson has been trying to foist off on his brother.

Still, it's the relationship between little Eddie Hodges—a kid with a smile which engulfs anyone in his way—and Sinatra—who's all mixed up about everything except the kid—that makes this film so warm.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

"The Diary of Anne Frank," considered by many to be the most heart-stirring document to come out of World War II, opens Sunday.

As a film (CinemaScope) it is director George Stevens' masterpiece, a stunning re-telling of the story of a little girl and her family locked away in an overcrowded Amsterdam garret, hiding from the Nazi invaders.

If at times the story is harrowing, it also leaves an aftermath of inspiration, a contagion of Anne's own steadfast faith.

Don't miss this one!

NOVATO, SEQUOIA THEATERS

"Yellowstone Kelly" (color) spotlights three TV stars: Clint "Cheyenne" Walker, John "Lawman" Russell and Edd "77 Sunset Strip" Byrnes.

This Cavalry vs. Indians tale opening Sunday at both theaters, is essentially about the love of four men for a beautiful squaw (Andra Martin).

She is desired by a great Sioux warrior (Russell), who believes that only white men's magic can cure her ailment (a bullet wound in the spine). So he permits mountain man Walker and his tenderfoot companion (Byrnes) to enter his camp and operate—successfully.

The fourth man is played by Ray Danton, an Indian who kidnaps the girl. This eventually leads to a showdown battle between the soldiers and the Indians—in short, plenty of action.

LARK THEATER

If you couldn't afford the price tag when the famed Bolshoi ballet was in San Francisco recently, you can still see a generous sampling of its current repertoire—including a stunning "Giselle," danced by Galina Ulanova.

MARIN THEATER

"Anatomy of a Murder" is a strictly straight-talk film based on the current best-seller. And if at times it emphasizes anatomy more than murder, it's still also one of the most engrossing courtroom dramas in many a year.

"Anatomy" tells of an Army officer (Ben Gazzara) who admits killing a man. He declares his victim had assaulted his wife (Lee Remick).

The suspense springs entirely from speculation on whether the defense attorney (James Stewart) can set him free.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

This theater is reviving the perennially popular "Tammy and the Bachelor," the story of a swampland Cinderella (Debbie Reynolds) who meets her dashing prince (Leslie Nielsen) when his plane cracks up in the bayou.

The cast also includes Walter Brennan, as Debbie's granddaddy, a man who's an expert on corn likker. When he's sent to the pokey, Debbie accepts Leslie's invitation to visit the old mansion. There she meets the evil witch of this warm little tale (Fay Wray) and Nielsen's fiancée (Mala Powers).

All ends happily of course and the total effect is a bright little film which audiences seem to enjoy. (In color.)

The co-feature is an action film, "Jet Pilot."

FAIRFAX THEATER

Howard Hawks, who directed "The Big Sky," is responsible for the class which attaches to "Rio Bravo."

He has taken standard "oat-er" fare and added excitement to this tale of a sheriff (John Wayne) pitted against a wealthy rancher (John Russell) and his no-good brother (Claude Akins).

For assistance, Wayne has Dean Martin—a former gunslinger determined to redeem himself after a two-year banishment—and Walter Brennan, an old man.

The lady gambler—who's really nicer than she seems—is played by Angie Dickinson. And the young gunslinger starting out in the world is played by Ricky Nelson.

MARIN MOTOR MOVIES

"Geisha Boy" (color, VistaVision) is a series of gags perpetrated by comedian Jerry Lewis, who shows up as a magician with a USO troupe headed for Japan.

His one real asset is a mad white rabbit, which he smuggles aboard ship. Quite a rabbit, too: It dines on cherries from a woman's hat, dodges under Marie MacDonald's bedclothes (with Jerry in pursuit), and finally turns out to be named Harriet, rather than Harry.

IN "DIARY"—Ed Wynn and Millie Perkins have leading roles in "The Diary of Anne Frank" opening on Sunday at the Tamalpais Theatre in San Anselmo. Van Johnson in "The Last Blitzkrieg" will be seen as a second feature.

ON RAFAEL SCREEN—Frank Sinatra and Eleanor Parker carry the starring roles in Frank Capra's latest comedy release "Holes in the Head," opening Sunday at the Rafael theater in San Rafael. Edward G. Robinson and Carolyn Jones are co-featured.

Marin Square Dancers Set Festivities In Larkspur

Get in step, everybody.

Next week is state square dance week. Gov. Edmund G. Brown has proclaimed it so, and the Marin Square Dance Assn. has decided to take advantage of it by staging a three-hour outdoor dance in Larkspur.

The show will start at 4 p.m. Sunday at the Rose Bowl. Picnic facilities will be available to families from 2 to 4 p.m.

There will be a special exhibition of the Elizabeth quadrille at the mid-point of the program. Gordon Collins of the Cornhuskers and Tophands is program chairman and master of ceremonies.

Member clubs planning to participate are Buzzin' Boots, Charm 'n' Farmers, Circle O Promenaders, Cornhuskers, Double Diamond Workshop, Double Eight Squares, Fiddle Footers, Haybalers, Marin Crickets, Merry-Go-Rounders, Mill Wheelers, Novato Squares, Redwood Rompers, Retter's Rounders, Spinning Spurs, Stump Jumpers and Top Hands.

Callers for the clubs will participate in the program with each calling a "tip" of two dances.

The program, "Small Talk Variations" and

"Oh, Lonesome Me," Collins;

"Fiddle Faddle," "Basin Street Blues," Charlie Bassett; "Dixie Q.," "Lazy River," Milt Adams; "Restless," "Puttin' on the Style," Al Malone; "Spring Fever Variations," "When My Baby Smiles at Me," Dave Shepherd.

"Suzie Whirl," "Loud Mouth," Joe Crumpler; "Star Thru," "Hazel Eyes," Larry Twist; "Squizzamaru," "Sailing Down That Old Green River," Merle Basom; "Hurricane Harangue," "Old Fashioned Girl," Bill Owen; "York Turn Elliott," "I've Got Bells on My Heart," Skip Graham, and "Red Hen Variations," "Honeycomb," Collins.

At the end of each "tip" there will be round dances to be under direction of the "tip" callers.

The 555-foot Washington Monument in Washington, D. C., now has aircraft-warning lights.

ROCKET PLANE IN SUCCESSFUL TEST FLIGHT

The X15 rocket plane flashes over the Mojave Desert under its own power for the first time yesterday before coming in for a perfect landing. With pilot Scott Crossfield at the controls, the X15 was cut loose from the mother ship and soared to 50,000 feet before coming in for the landing. Crossfield termed the flight "very successful" and said the plane "performed better than expected." (AP Wirephoto)

British Beat Khrushchev To Disarm Plan Draw

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Britain's new disarmament plan seems to drop some of the conditions that have hampered East-West agreement in the past.

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd presented it to the United Nations General Assembly yesterday, thus getting in ahead of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Lloyd, who spoke in the assembly's general policy debate, was the first big-power to lay down a plan for discussion in new disarmament talks to start in an evenly balanced East-West committee in Geneva early next year.

He proposed disarmament in three stages—first, agreement to stop nuclear tests and technical study conference on other particular problems; second, a gradual cutback in conventional arms and manpower and a cutoff in production of fissionable material for weapons, and third, "comprehensive disarmament by all powers"—all "under effective international control."

Observers of years of fruitless disarmament negotiations saw these new elements in Lloyd's plan:

He did not say the second stage should be carried out only if "there has been progress toward the solution of political issues."

He did not say the nuclear powers would be free to resume testing after 24 months if in that time there had not been satisfactory progress toward setting up an inspection system to police a production cutoff.

Such conditions were laid down in the last official Western disarmament plan, put before the five-nation U.N. Disarmament Subcommittee in London Aug. 27, 1957.

Cornerstone laying ceremonies will be held at 10 a.m. Sept. 29 at the new campus of Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary on Strawberry Point.

Dr. E. H. Westmoreland, pastor of the South Main Baptist Church, Houston, and president of the seminary board, will be the principal speaker.

The ceremony opens six days of open house at the new campus, now just ending the first stage of its development. A reception will be held at the president's house Sept. 29 from 3 till 5 p.m., and a piano recital featuring David P. Appleby at 8 p.m. Sept. 30 at 10 a.m. Dr. Charles McKay, executive secretary of the Baptist General Convention of Arizona, will address the first missionary day gathering on the new campus.

Meany Attacks Soviet Record Of Aggression

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—AFL-CIO unions are expected to approve a fund today of some 25 to 30 million dollars per month to aid striking steelworkers.

The federation's 135 unions were due to commit their full treasuries, plus a pledge of outright grants, to aid the half-million steelworkers in their 66-day strike.

The strike fund is supposed to guarantee that no steel striker or his family goes hungry and that the steel union will not have to weaken its demands because of financial shortage.

Under the proposal due for adoption today every one of the 12½ million AFL-CIO members is being asked to contribute an hour's pay per week to the steelworkers.

George Meany, AFL-CIO president, lashed into the record of the Soviet Union and its Premier, Nikita Khrushchev, in a keynote convention address yesterday.

Meany warned Americans to avoid being fooled by the Soviet leader on his current visit to the United States because of what Meany described as an almost unbroken record of deceit and aggression on the part of the Soviet Union.

USC BANS FRAT

Family Of Hazing Fatality Demands Thorough Probe

LOS ANGELES (UP)—The family of a University of Southern California student who choked to death during a fraternity hazing ritual today demanded a complete and thorough investigation.

Dr. Arthur L. Swanson, a dentist, charged that some members of the fraternity could have prevented the death of his brother, Richard, had they cooperated with ambulance attendants.

Young Swanson died early yesterday when a quarter-pound piece of oil-smeared liver he was ordered to swallow lodged in his throat during initiation into Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Police and ambulance attendants charged the 21-year-old student's life might have been saved if about 50 fraternity members present had told what had happened. Instead they claimed Swanson was suffering from a nervous spasm. Sen. Edwin J. Regan (D-Shasta and Trinity), chairman of the state Senate Judiciary Committee and author of a new anti-hazing law, said in Weaver, he is urging the Los Angeles district attorney to prosecute those fraternity members taking part in the fatal initiation.

The fraternity chapter was officially banned from the university within hours after Swanson's death.

There Are Couple Thousand New Laws Effective Today

You are affected today by nearly two thousand new laws.

Starting today, if you are jobless, you may draw $55 per week unemployment insurance instead of $40. Or if you're in line for the job, you may be appointed to Marin's new third municipal court judgeship.

On the other hand, if you are a yellow-billed magpie, you may get shot because the Legislature decided you are a pest and not a song bird.

Today the vast majority of the 2,195 bills Gov. Edmund G. Brown signed into law become effective. Many of them affect you directly. Some of them already are in operation, like the new tax on cigarettes, beer and inheritance taxes. And don't forget the increased state income tax, which is at work now although you may not feel it until next April.

If you are a state worker, you already have felt the happy effect of a five per cent pay boost, which started July 1.

Some of the laws passed, however, won't become operational today. Like the new 65 miles per hour speed limit on the highways; it WILL NOT be in effect until Jan. 1. Or the required state registration of small boats and rules for safe operation and reporting of accidents. They become effective April 1.

Here in Marin the effective date means other things too, besides the new municipal court. Tidelands for small boat harbors in Richardson Bay and Santa Venetia area become the property of Mill Valley and the County of Marin, providing they improve them within 10 years. The Department of Natural Resources, which today takes over full administrative control of the state's beaches and parks from the State Park Commission, can buy Steep Ravine and ocean frontage to connect Tamalpais State Park to Stinson Beach State Park.

Marin County, or any county, may now regulate small dams, like the one which dumped water into Sleepy Hollow a year or so ago. The county can also financially aid Sausalito School District for two more years while the redevelopment of Marin City is under way.

When you get your county ballot next year, any county propositions on it will be accompanied by an unbiased explanation of what the measure will do, prepared by the county counsel.

We get some additional roads incorporated in the state highway system — the road from Greenbrae to Pt. San Quentin, a road yet to be designated from San Rafael to near Pt. Reyes Station, and a loop which will link Fairfax and Novato via Nicasio. Don't drive these state highways until they are built, however.

The state has agreed to build a rapid transit tube under San Francisco Bay between San Francisco and Oakland if the public votes the bonds to build the rest of the rapid transit system.

Governor Brown can now name the members of the Golden Gate Authority Commission to study possible consolidation of bridge, port and airport facilities, and we hope he gets around to it soon so that they can go to work.

These are only a few of the hundreds of new laws. There's not enough space here to even list them. But they're all passed now and it's up to you to abide by them. Ignorance of the law is no excuse.

THE JOKE WAS ON THEM

Burglars broke into a store in Ontario, Canada, not long ago, and went to great pains in the still of the night to cart away the safe.

They felt that in some remote spot they could pry it open and leisurely share the contents.

When the owner of the store discovered and reported the theft, he was not too disturbed. He told police that the culprits would find only $10,000 worth of unpaid bills.

Those who work long and hard at any kind of dishonesty or deception eventually face the disagreeable fact that whatever is gained through crime carries a heavy price tag with it.

It's not always easy to follow the straight and narrow path and to be fair and square in dealings at home, in business, at school or anywhere else.

But whatever the cost of honesty, it is a small price to pay for the peace of heart, mind and soul that God reserves for those who are true to Him, themselves and their fellowman.

"He that is good shall draw grace from the Lord." (Proverbs 12:2)

Grant me the strength and courage, O Lord, to be honest in all that I think, say and do.

Comiskey Of White Sox Intends To Keep Wearing Grandpa's Toga

NEW YORK (AP) — Winning of their first American League pennant in 40 years by the Chicago White Sox will climax a long family dream for baseball's youngest executive.

"It's been a long time coming true," admitted Charles A. Comiskey, 33, the club's executive vice president.

"Chuck," also sometimes known as "the Young Roman," is the grandson of "the Old Roman" — the tough and canny original Charles A. Comiskey, cofounder of the American League back in 1900.

Under "the Old Roman" the White Sox won six league titles, the last in 1919, six years before Chuck was born.

"I was 6 when my grandfather died, and don't remember too much about him," said young Comiskey. "But even then I was interested in the game.

After a two-year hitch in the Navy during World War II, he took over the reins as president of the Waterloo, Iowa, club for the 1948 season. He also functioned as "ticket seller, turnstile attendant, sweeper-outer and scout."

Late that year he moved up to his present post with the White Sox. He had just turned 23.

Astute Frank Lane was hired as general manager and the two set to work rebuilding the White Sox farm system and swapping players.

"It takes time and patience to build a real team," said Chuck. "Our present team is the result of more than 10 years of hard work and planning."

"I predicted three years ago the New York Yankees were dying at the grass roots — and they were. They used to have good prospects on all their farm clubs, but a few years ago that crop began to die out."

COMISKEY IS PROUD of the 1959 White Sox club, feels sturdily sure it will go on to win its first World Series since 1917.

How big a role Chuck will play in the future destiny of the White Sox remains to be seen. The Comiskey clan is noted for its internal fusing and fighting.

Protests Story On Guffey Reader

EDITOR.

Independent-Journal:

Having rather more than a passing familiarity with the several reading series discussed in the Sept. 11 Independent-Journal, I feel that I must protest the implications of the entire article, and the many misimpressions it presented to the public about the teaching of reading the public schools and in private organizations.

A teacher quoted in the article complains that children have been exposed to California State reading materials without learning to read, but "apparently the McGuffey readers worked." Does he mean to suggest that no students have failed after exposure to McGuffey readers? The original McGuffey, related to the present edition only in name, has been out of use for so many years that few people have ever seen it, let alone know how many pupils failed to read it. The present edition is not even meant to be used as a basic skill-building reader, so that there cannot be many present-day students on whom it has worked. What is apparent to this teacher is not so apparent to other readers.

It is no wonder that pupils learning to read from the McGuffey series must go to Noah Webster for their phonics, for these "readers" are not really developmental readers at all, but a literature book published by the American Book Company to supplement their developmental reading series. Both the California State readers and the Scott Foresman series discussed by the newspaper article, on the other hand, have a carefully developed program of phonics beginning with listening for sounds in the first days of first grade.

These statements are not meant to suggest that children may not learn to read quite adequately with the combination of McGuffey and Noah Webster, but neither should it be suggested by persons making a responsible comparison that the combination offers anything that is not provided more thoroughly and more sequentially by the Scott Foresman and many other programs used in Marin County. We seriously question the fairness of undermining the confidence of the public in their schools without giving them complete, honest, and accurate information from which to form their opinions.

The writer quoted in your article may really believe that material ordinarily found in high school literature books is suitable for 11-year-olds or that smaller type produces a book that can be read with better results. He cannot, as principal of an elementary school, be serious in his statement that modern-day texts are "sprinkled with youthful characters FOREVER saying their companions 'Look! Look!' or 'Come, come.' 'Forever' is considerably longer than it takes to read a pre-primer, and it is only in pre-primer that such sentences are found.

Pre-primers were not used in the days of the original McGuffey; instead, children learned lists of words and letters for months before they read in a book. In modern reading series, pre-primers teach these basic words and at the same time involve children in real story characters whose adventures are real because they happen to all children. Reading is not just words; it is words put together in such a way as to tell a story. When you are six, and reading is very new, a familiar friend like "come" can save many a day, regardless of how "Come, come" may sound when reading has become old.

The director of the 3R Schools states that literary content is given no thought in present-day readers. Does he know the Scott Foresman program, or the Ginn, or any of the others in current use? Does he know that for one unit in the fourth grade TIMES AND PLACES, 49 stories and 17 books are suggested for the children's reading, and that each of these is selected, as are the reader stories by May Hill Arbuthnot and Marian Monroe on the basis of their literary content and the personal growth of the characters in them?

My understanding of first rate literature was that it spoke clearly to man of things that were important to them in a way that would make them wiser and better people than they were before. Children's literature, then, must speak to children in this way; and the selections in the readers under discussion, by outstanding children's authors, do just that. Disraeli, Samuel Johnson, and Oliver Wendell Holmes do not; indeed, how much do they say to anyone today? And may we be forever delivered from "our American culture" if we must go down once again to a watery grave with Mr. Longfellow's HESPERUS. Rather let him take aboard Mr. McGuffey's persevering aunt, who is so eager to draw the morals for us all. Children who read literature appropriate to their age and interest can draw their own morals. Too many "pious aunts" would gladly draw the morals for this world — one of the more outstanding ones was named Adolf Hitler.

It is more than important that our schools, public and private, use the best textbooks available to teach reading. And it is equally important that the public who support the schools understand the materials from which their children are being taught to read.

If the press feels a responsibility to enlighten in this direction, they would be welcomed as enthusiastically in any school district office as they have been by private institutions. Any amount of time would be spent in giving a true picture of the reading program. A free press, however, must be as free from the prejudice of its leadership as from the dictates of government. If they do not wish to tell the story whole, then let them be silent. Let us have no Aunt INDEPENDENT-JOURNAL.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

One of the reasons Jack Benny stays at the top in the turbulent TV world year after year is his infectious enthusiasm and obvious enjoyment of his work. His wife Mary reveals that Jack's gusto carries over into the most minute facets of his home life.

One day, sunning himself beside his Palm Springs swimming pool, he suddenly pulled George Burns to his feet and urged, "I've got to show you something sensational upstairs in my dressing room." Burns expected the blueprint of a new space ship at least — but Benny whipped out a pair of sport shoes. "Admit it," he declared happily. "Isn't that the greatest shine you ever saw?"

Poem composed by a weary Arizona taxpayer: "Rock-a-bye baby, why do you fret? Are you aware of the national debt? Father has gone 'round the corner to vote millions in bonds that his snookums will tote. Are you suspicious? Sleep while you can. You will squirm later, dear, when you are a man."

Let's Give Government To Ladies, Bless Their Talkative Selves

What with secret, although legal, meetings taking place in the county, and officials asking members of the press to keep their remarks "off the record," we've come up with an idea that might do away with all that.

Put the ladies in office! Women are well-known to be great talkers. Women are known not to be able to keep a secret.

And the place to start, we think, is the chief legislative body of the county.

BUT WE WANT to make it plain that we have nothing against any male member of the board. They are all fine gentlemen. We're just against men in general. But who isn't except the ladies.

This is our plot — er plan: There is already one woman of the board of supervisors, so we would just let her remain there.

We know how two more can get on the board. We would get one on the board from the Second Supervisorial District — that of Ross Valley, now represented by Bill Fusselman.

THE PERSON to take his place has got to be prominent in public affairs and a good talker. And, ladies and gentlemen, there is only one lady that fits the description, and that is Mrs. Carmel Booth, San Anselmo councilman.

Mrs. Booth and Mrs. Fusselman have been in the arena together before. Mr. Fusselman has always been the winner. He's hard to beat, and we don't think he can be beat. So our plan for Mrs. Booth would have to wait until Mr. Fusselman retires to the field of senior statesman.

There's no sign he is about to do that.

So, you can see that getting

Mrs. Booth elected would be a problem. And anyway that would only put two women on the board, and that's not enough.

Let's look in the First District, that of San Rafael and vicinity, represented by Walter Castro. Castro himself is a staunch foe of secrecy, but then he's not as chatty as a woman.

WHO WOULD BE our candidate in his district? None other than Terra Linda's voluble Harriette Wills. The defeat of the Terra Linda Recreation Bonds might be laid in part to Mrs. Wills' fluent speech and general get-up-and-go.

If Terra Linda is made part of San Rafael, you can expect Mrs. Wills to be a candidate for the San Rafael City Council.

If she gets elected, then watch out! Of course, Mr. Castro is a pretty powerful vote getter too.

This whole thing may take some doing. In fact, unless there is at least one more woman on the board, we may as well give up. Because, in spite of having three lovely, chatty ladies on the board, they wouldn't be able to make a move against two men. It takes a four-fifths vote to appropriate money. And what two men, even in a minority, are going to let three women tell them what to do?

WELL, THERE are two other districts, those of William Gness of Novato, and James Marshall of Tomales.

Now let's see — are there any brave and true and charming and talkative women from those areas?

That's the question, and unless we can get it answered we better give up.

WALTER LIPPMANN

Moon Shot Gave Mr. K. Good Start, How Will His Trip End?

In choosing this moment to shoot the moon Mr. K. has taken, we must presume, a calculated risk. Among the dangers of his visit the greatest — apart from a possible accident — is that nothing will come of it all, that the mountain will have labored and brought forth a mouse.

In signalling his arrival by such a spectacular scientific and technological triumph, he has to think of his departure, and whether his visit, which has started so big, is to peter out at the end.

IF ONE COULD feel sure that Mr. K. has realized what the moon shot is as propaganda in the present situation, it would be reasonable to assume that he is coming here with something important to say.

After such a crashing overture, the way has been prepared for something more than the Khrushchev-Nixon dialogue, at the Moscow Fair, or an oral presentation of Gromyko's speeches and diplomatic notes.

The overture promises to prepare the way for some move which inaugurates, which does not throw cold water upon, serious negotiations.

While conceivably it may be the case, I find it hard to believe that Mr. K. has given such importance to the visit if he does not have some serious business in mind. Mr. K. is nobody's fool, and he cannot be deluding himself with the fantasy that there can be any marked change in the American attitude towards the cold war without a change of substance in some of the critical issues of the cold war.

THERE IS NO more chance of his beguiling and seducing us with speeches and gestures than of our converting him to the Declaration of Independence and the Bill of Rights with the sight of supermarkets or what have you.

In the end everything will depend on whether in his private talks with the President and his closest advisors, a way is found to continue the talks when the President goes to Moscow. The public hullabaloo will be interesting to watch.

But in the absence of serious talks, what Mr. K. thinks of the U. S. A. and what the American people who see him think of Mr. K. will no more change the course of history than the moon shot has changed the course of the moon.

IN SAYING ALL this, I do not mean to suggest that the talks will be serious only if Mr. K. agrees with us. The essence of the stalemate about Germany is that there can be no German settlement, and not even an agreed truce, unless a new formula — however limited and provisional — is introduced into the deadlock.

There is some reason to think that we, in company with the British, would examine carefully and with an open mind a new formula. As the Soviet Union has the diplomatic initiative in the German question, the new formula will have to come from Mr. K. It cannot come from President Eisenhower who has to think about his continental allies.

De Gaulle Plan Hit

ALGIERS (P) — Right-wing French settlers today made a bid for army support to block Gen. Charles de Gaulle's plan to put Algeria's future up to a vote that could bring independence from France.

But the right-wingers' appeal fell far short of rousing the enthusiasm of last year's May 13 revolt which brought down the Fourth French Republic and paved the way for de Gaulle's return to power.

Strike Continues

SAN FRANCISCO (P) — A strike idling Pacific Coast shipyards droned into its 26th day today following a union-management meeting which ended with a report of "No progress."

James Brownlow, president of the AFL-CIO Metal Trades Department, took time out yesterday from the union's national convention here to confer with the chief negotiator for the struck shipyards, Henry Obst.

He reported afterward, "There was no progress made and no further meetings are scheduled."

Actor's Rites Held

HOLLYWOOD (UP) — More than 200 friends and relatives of actor Wayne Morris attended his funeral services yesterday.

The actor, who died Monday of a heart attack at 45 years of age, had requested that a wake be held instead of a funeral and left $300 in his will for the purpose. But a funeral was held instead.

Typhoon Kills 87

TOKYO (P) — Typhoon Sarah bore down on Soviet-held Sakhalin Island today after killing 64 South Koreans and causing a million dollars damage to American military installations.

The Korean dead raised the toll to 87 killed, 116 missing and 124 injured in the storm's four-day, 3,000-mile sweep up the East China and Japan seas.

Jazzman Dies

NEW YORK (UP) — Omer Simeon, famed New Orleans jazz clarinetist, died yesterday at the age of 57.

Simeon was born in New Orleans and became one of its greatest traditional clarinetists.

He played in bands led by King Oliver and Jelly Roll Morton early in his career.

In the 1930's, when traditional jazz gave way to swing, Simeon played in the big bands of Earl Hines, Coleman Hawkins, Walter Fuller and Jimmy Lunceford as a saxophonist.

U. C. Enrollment Up

BERKELEY (P) — Registration at the University of California ended yesterday with 18,774 students signed up for the fall semester.

Registrar Clinton C. Gilliam said the figure represented a 3.6 increase over last fall.

The coeds should have easy pickings, as they are outnumbered by the men, 12,342 to 6,432.

Princess Expecting

BRUSSELS, Belgium (P) — A palace official today announced in Brussels that Princess Paola is expecting a baby next spring. The Italian-born princess married Prince Albert of Belgium, brother of King Baudouin, July 2.

Auto Prices Firm

DETROIT (P) — General Motors Corp. is holding the 1959 price line on all of its 1960 regular passenger car models.

The corporation announced today factory list prices on its five models—Chevrolet, Buick, Oldsmobile, Cadillac and Pontiac—will not be increased over 1959.

GM's announcement followed earlier reports that all of the auto industry's Big Three—GM, Ford and Chrysler—would hold the 1959 price line.

Ford and Chrysler have yet to announce their 1960 model prices.

Missile On Target

EGLIN AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. (P) — The Bomarc interceptor missile passed its second test against a Regulus II jet drone target.

A Bomarc destroyed a radio-controlled Regulus far out over the Gulf test range yesterday. In the first of a series of tests against faster-than-sound simulated enemy bombers Sept. 3, a Bomarc scored a scheduled near miss on another Regulus.

Mill Valley School Board Sets Meet

A special meeting of the Mill Valley School District trustees will be held Monday at 8 p.m. at Park School, Supt. G. R. McConnell announced today.

Sole purpose of the meeting, he said, will be to visit the district's instructional material center at the school. Asst. Supt. Logan T. Miles, director of the center, will conduct the tour.

Business Group Meets Khrushchev

NEW YORK (P) — A group of leading industrialists, financiers and educators told Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev that a continuance of the "cold war" was not in the interests of American capitalism.

Twenty-seven business and education chiefs had a 90-minute meeting with Khrushchev yesterday at the home of W. Averell Harriman, former New York governor and onetime U.S. ambassador to the Soviet Union.

Skelton Hospitalized

SANTA MONICA (P) — Red Skelton is in a hospital for a rest. Suffering fatigue, the comedian entered St. John's Hospital yesterday. He expects to be out Monday.

STAY IN SEATS

The Khrushchevs remained in their seats for the 15-minute break, surrounded by security guards.

Mrs. Khrushchev, venturing out on her own in public for the first time, got a taste of what unfavorable crowd reaction, hitherto directed to her husband, is like.

There was applause as she arrived at the theater—but also a loud boo.

At least one international street car line still exists. A three-mile loop runs between El Paso, Tex., and Juarez, Mexico.

Down On The Farm

GLEN FLORA, Wis. (P) — The national religious farm magazine "Catholic Rural Life," is edited in the former milkhouse of a farm.

"It's a matter of principle," says editor Dana C. Jennings. "It's dishonest to lock yourself up in a concrete tower to write about farms and farming."

45 Feared Dead In Mine Disaster

CHRYSTON, Scotland (UP) — Forty-five men trapped by an electric explosion in a mile-deep flaming coal mine were given no chance of survival today.

"There is no hope," a National Coal Board spokesman said.

A rescue worker said "it is pure hell down there."

Altogether, 52 men were trapped when wires to a ventilating fan short-circuited early today, sending flames and smoke billowing through the mine corridors. Six men were brought out alive by rescue teams. Another was found dead.

At first, officials were confident most of the men would be saved. But rescue workers taking a breather on the surface said operations underground had been severely hampered by severe falls of coal and rock.

The fire was extinguished by early afternoon but officials said it would be several hours, perhaps even nighttime, before rescue squads got to the trapped men or their bodies.

Khrushchev Snaps At Hecklers But Quickly Regains Usual Aplomb

NEW YORK (P) — The great Soviet-American traveling debate moved today to the stage of the United Nations, with Nikita Khrushchev, scheduled to address the Assembly.

The Soviet premier, after three full and rugged days of speaking and touring, lost his temper momentarily in public last night. But he quickly recovered his usual aplomb.

It was in a question-and-answer discussion that the stocky, five-foot-five Russian suddenly snapped back at his audience.

He even threatened to walk out of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel's grand ballroom, where he was addressing the New York Economic Club. His audience was made up of about 2,000 of the country's top industrial and business leaders.

He had been answering questions with a show of joviality. Then a guest asked him: Why, if he was so intent upon mutual Soviet-American understanding, were not the Soviet people allowed to listen to U.S. broadcasts? Why weren't American newspapers and periodicals allowed to circulate freely? Why were American newsmen's dispatches censored?

Khrushchev parried: He and President Eisenhower had agreed their discussions would not involve interference in each other's internal affairs.

"Answer the question!" someonebody shouted, amid groans from the audience. The Premier blew up. His face reddened.

"I am an old sparrow, so to say, and you cannot muddle me with your cries. You might not listen to me if you don't want to. But surely you must show enough hospitality not to interrupt. If there is no desire to listen to what I have to say, I will go."

"I have come here not to beg of anything; I come here as a representative of a great country, a great people, who have made a great revolution, and no cries can deafen, can do away with the great achievement of our people."

He offered to answer the questions if there were no interruptions. For 10 seconds there was silence. He calmed down, and continued:

"The question of what our public listens to or reads should be decided not by any outside government or influence, but by our own people and government."

Once again, in his formal talk, Khrushchev boasted that the U.S.S.R. would overtake the United States in industrial production more quickly than planned. Then, possibly because of the makeup of his audience, he called the U.S. government's trade embargoes against the U.S.S.R. "senseless obstinacy."

Before Khrushchev spoke, Henry Cabot Lodge, U.S. ambassador to the U.N. and Khrushchev's escort for the tour, chided him for having compared early, old-fashioned capitalism with the modern U.S. system.

The difference is as great as the difference between black and white," said Lodge. "We believe this will become crystal clear to you as you see things for yourself on your tour around the country."

Nikita To End Visit With Speech On TV

WASHINGTON (P) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will wind up his American tour with a nationwide television speech a few hours before he takes off for his return trip to the Soviet Union Sept. 27.

Khrushchev's schedule for the last four days of his visit was announced yesterday by the White House.

The premier will spend 42 hours with President Eisenhower at the President's Camp David retreat in the Catoctin Mountains of Maryland during Khrushchev's last weekend in the United States.

The Khrushchev party will fly from Des Moines to Pittsburgh next Wednesday night. The following morning the premier will visit the Mesta Machinery Co. plant at West Homestead, Pa.

That afternoon he will attend a civic luncheon on the campus of the University of Pittsburgh.

The Khrushchevs will leave Pittsburgh after the luncheon, arriving here Thursday afternoon. They will stay again at the President's guest house here.

Ambassador Mikhail A. Menshikov will give a big reception for the Khrushchevs early that evening at the Soviet Embassy.

Khrushchev will visit the National Institutes of Health and other points of interest here Friday morning, then leave by car for Camp David.

The weekend talks will continue until noon Sunday, Sept. 27, when Khrushchev will drive back to Washington. He will hold a press conference, then go to the NBC television studio here for his address in the evening.

After a private dinner, the party will leave Andrews Air Force Base at 10 p.m. for the trip home.

Elevator Stalls; Nikita Quips 'Capitalistic Malfunction'

NEW YORK (P) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's private elevator in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel stalled yesterday as it was taking him up to the Presidential Suite on the 35th floor.

The operator couldn't get the elevator beyond the 30th floor.

Khrushchev waited patiently for several minutes, then strode up five flights of stairs.

Grinning, he turned to his escort, Henry Cabot Lodge, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, and said: "A capitalistic malfunction."

Nikita Places Wreath On Grave Of Roosevelt

HYDE PARK, N.Y. (P) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev arrived at Hyde Park today on a brief pilgrimage to the grave of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The late President's widow, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, greeted Khrushchev outside the grave site as he arrived after a 70-mile drive up the Hudson Valley from New York City.

A light rain was falling as he and Mrs. Roosevelt walked together into what was once the Roosevelt family's rose garden, where the President was buried April 15, 1945.

Mrs. Roosevelt, who met Khrushchev two years ago on a visit to Yalta, stood by as the Soviet premier placed a wreath of roses on her husband's grave.

ALONG MARIN'S SPORTS TRAIL

By JIM GILMARTIN

Historic Moment In S. F. Press Box; Alert Scribe Snares 'First' Foul

Your trusty correspondent made baseball history yesterday!

The first baseball ever fouled back into the upper press box at Seals Stadium was caught by—guess who? Well, it wasn't Abner Doubleday.

We have the Spaulding Sphere right on our desk to prove this magnificent feat. And it was no easy task, what with such sure-handed scribes at Prescott Sullivan, Jimmy Cannon, Dick Young, Jack Fiske and about 25 others from Philadelphia, New York, Milwaukee and numerous Bay Area communities just waiting for this historic "first."

Our catlike quickness—sort of the Jimmy Davenport of the press gang—was a crushing blow to one particular man. He is Rod Ryan, the Western Union representative, who has seen every major league game played in Seals Stadium. Fighting back tears, Rod gulped: "Gee, Jim, I've been waiting for this moment for two years. I didn't think a ball would ever come back up here, but I thought if one ever did I'd be sure to catch it."

When the big moment arrived, however, the busy Ryan was on the phone about five feet from where we made our spectacular play.

With only three more games scheduled in Seals stadium, it's unlikely Ryan will get another chance to snatch a souvenir ball. If he does, it will have to be another fluke like yesterday's. The ball, off the bat of the Braves' Bobby Avila, sailed back over the screen, hit the slanted roof of the lower, enclosed press box, then bounced back into the open-faced upper box, over Pres Sullivan's shoulder, whizzing past our ear against the back wall. Then it became a matter of who had the fastest hands. Nothing to it, folks. Horace Stoneham may have a plaque made in our honor. Now, getting down to the minor topics, such as the National League race.

In the past few days we've come across no less than 1,000 mathematicians who have the "magic numbers" all figured out.

No doubt about it, the Giants are in a good seat with a two-game bulge over the Braves and Dodgers, but the Braves have the break in the schedule.

While the Giants must tackle the rugged Dodgers thrice, then the pesky Chicago Cubs twice and finally the "cousin" Cardinals for the final three, the Braves go against the last place Phillies five times and the Pirates three.

The experts figure the Giants should take two from L.A., split with the Cubs and take two of three from the Cardinals. That, they figure, should be good enough for the pennant.

The Phillies have been tough lately and could upset the Braves once, maybe twice. Pittsburgh also could prove to be the Braves' spoiler.

Anyway, San Francisco is in good position for each game the Braves or Dodgers lose, the Giants can lose one more and still beat them. If either the Braves or Dodgers win five of the eight, the Giants only have to play .500 ball to cop the marbles. And that's the way each team has played the last eight games—the Giants winning four and losing four and Milwaukee and L.A. each 3-5.

Anyway you look at it this is a dramatic race and the next nine days could create several cardiac cases. Pass the Mil-towns, Mildred.

Bobby Avila and Enos Slaughter, American League castoffs, have helped the Braves a great deal in their run for the flag, but yesterday they should have stood in bed. Avila's two errors at second base opened the flood gates for five Giant runs and Slaughter looked rather meek at the plate. In left field Enos failed to charge a sharp single and permitted Mays to race from first to third on the play. O! Slaughter, away from the N.L. for quite some spell, apparently has forgotten Mays' artistic base-running.

Someone suggested the Giants' young players would choke under pressure, but if anyone was choking in yesterday's most important game of the season it was the Braves. The Giants have come through in every "must" situation.

Bums Invade S.F. For Showdown Series

The magic number was "lucky seven" today as the San Francisco Giants opened another crucial National League series—this time with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Leading the pack by two games after yesterday's 13-6 drubbing of the Milwaukee Braves, seven victories out of the remaining eight games would clinch the pennant—even if Milwaukee won all remaining games. The Giants could gain a tie by winning six of the eight.

So manager Bill Rigney sends his ace left-hander, Johnny Antonelli, to the hill against the Dodgers tonight in quest of personal victory No. 20—and another chance to reduce the "magic number."

Don Drysdale, fire-balling right-hander who makes a fetish out of striking out Giants, will be on the mound for the visitors.

The game has been a sell-out for more than six weeks.

Both Rigney and Manager Fred Haney went all out in their decision to win yesterday's game at any costs. Haney used six pitchers. He started with Warren Spahn and the Giants batted him out of the box in 10 minutes. Spahn, seeking his 19th win, walked one man and allowed three singles. He was lifted after throwing only 18 balls, and was charged with three runs.

After that, Haney called on Carlton Willey, Bob Rush, Joey Jay, Juan Pizarro and Don McMahon. All except Jay were treated roughly.

Willie Mays, in a hot hitting streak, came up to the plate five times, walked once, got three singles and a home run and drove in five runs.

Jack Sanford was the winning pitcher. But he wasn't around at the end. Sam Jones, who lost a 2-0 heart-breaker to the Braves in the opening game of the series, came along to finish the battle in the eighth inning.

"I wasn't taking any chances," said Rigney. "I couldn't take a chance on using anybody but the best in this game. We had to win it. So I sent in Jones to relieve."

At various times during the afternoon, Rigney also had Antonelli, Mike McCormick and Stu Miller warming up.

But he needn't have worried. Aside from Mays, Eddie Bressoud got three hits, including a homer, and scored four runs; Jim Davenport got a single and a homer, driving in four runs.

The Giants had an 8-0 lead after the first four innings of play and the Braves never were in the ball game. All six of their runs were driven in by Eddie Mathews, who smashed two home runs to send five runs across the plate and drove in another with a sacrifice fly. The Giants scored in six of the eight innings they came to bat.

GIANT JOTTINGS — "We had to win this one, because we don't get another shot at the Braves this year," said Rigney after the game. . . . Willie Mays, going four-for-four, says he hopes to finish with a batting mark of .315 "at least." He now is batting a little over .307. . . . Sanford hit Aaron with a pitch in the first inning and the star outfielder limped the rest of the game.

ALL IN VAIN — Giants' Eddie Bressoud slides safely under tag of Braves' Bobby Avila during yesterday's game, but umpires sent Eddie back to first base on a decision that created an argument. The alert Bressoud dashed to second when the return throw from the catcher to the pitcher went astray. Umpires ruled that catcher Del Crandall's hand hit the home plate umpire's mask during the throw and that the ball thus became "dead." (Independent-Journal photo by Carleton Williams)

Picks Bears, Indians To Lose Grid Openers

By HAL WOOD

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Power picks for the pigskin parade—with the Giants still battling for that National League baseball pennant yet:

Purdue over UCLA — The Bruins weren't half bad when they had only half their players. For the first time in recent memory they will have a full-year coach, a full squad of players and high hopes. But Purdue is the favorite to take the Big Ten title this year. It should be close. By one.

Washington State over California — The Cougars look like another high scoring outfit. Bears may not be up for this one. By three.

Oregon over Stanford — Indians can't expect to be much better than they were last year when they won only a single game. Coach Len Casanova has another strong team at Oregon. By 15.

Southern California over Oregon State — The Trojans, this year both big and fast, will open with a toughie — a club that may be one of the better ones in the West. But this is the "make or break" year for Coach Don Clark and he'll be ready. By eight.

Colorado over Washington — It is possible that the Huskies may not be strong enough to cope with the speedy Buff backs. Edge to the home team. By one.

San Jose State over Denver — The Spartans have their best team in recent years, with their most rugged schedule. By two.

College of Pacific over Colorado State — Dick Bass & Co. run wild over the mountain boys. By 30.

Dodgers Glad Giants Beat The Braves

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers trail by two full lengths going into their critical three-game series with the San Francisco Giants tonight. But, in a way, Dodger Manager Walt Alston is glad that's how it stands.

"It was okay with me that the Giants beat the Braves yesterday," Alston said. "Even though it means we're two games behind San Francisco. The reason is that I think the Braves have the easiest schedule."

Alston was referring to the fact that Milwaukee plays five of its eight remaining games with the last place Philadelphia Phillies.

HOPEFUL RECORD

As for the Giants, Alston might feel almost hopeful if his attitude depended entirely on the record to date this season. The Dodgers have beaten the Giants 11 times in 19 meetings this season and hold a 6-2 edge over them at Seals Stadium, the site of this weekend's series.

"But all those past records aren't going to mean a thing when we start playing tonight," Alston said.

The Dodger manager still isn't willing to guess how the National League race will end.

The Dodgers, who squeezed by Cincinnati 4-3 Thursday night, will use Don Drysdale in tonight's game and will follow with Roger Craig tomorrow.

'Lip' In, Gordon Out As Tribe Manager?

NEW YORK (UPI)—Leo Durocher, finally assured the "stock deal" he has held out for since 1955, will be named manager of the Cleveland Indians between now and World Series time, it was learned today from authoritative American League sources.

Durocher's hiring by the Indians will set off a chain of events that will include:

Joe Gordon, current Cleveland manager, moving to Detroit as manager of the Tigers.

Jimmie Dykes, present Detroit pilot, returning to the job he left as coach of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

And the strong possibility of Chuck Dressen going to Cleveland next year from Los Angeles to serve as coach under Durocher just as he did for many years with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

When he arrived in Pittsburgh last night for one of his final NBC-TV assignments, Durocher said:

"There's a better than even chance I will be back in uniform for the 1960 season."

Ever since he left the Giants in 1955, Durocher has insisted the only way he would consider coming back into baseball would be under a stock arrangement whereby he would manage the club and be permitted to hold stock in it.

Durocher left his $65,000-a-year job with NBC-TV yesterday and admitted he was "in the midst of negotiations" for a baseball job. He also indicated it was possible the announcement of his new job would be made "before the World Series."

Coast Gridders Open 1959 Season

By JACK STEVENSON
ASSOCIATED PRESS

Purdue and UCLA kick off the West Coast football season tonight and a full slate this weekend should give an idea how the teams stack up.

Another Friday night game finds San Jose State at Denver, Oregon plays at Stanford on Saturday afternoon and Washington at Colorado.

Saturday night games have USC and Oregon State at Portland, California and Washington State at Spokane and Colorado State University playing College of the Pacific at Stockton.

Death of the Pacific Coast Conference brings a re-alignment in the new West Coast Athletic Assn. of California, USC, UCLA, Washington and Stanford.

The others from the PCC operate as independents along with San Jose and COP, who've done it in the past.

UCLA banks on tailback Bill

Kilmer and Ray Smith to pace the attack against the Boiler-makers from the Big Ten.

The Uclans are one of the favorites in the Far West Five along with their cross-town rivals USC and the California Bears, who won last year's final PCC championship. Stanford boasts a strong passing attack, but without much depth in the interior line. Washington has mostly Juniors.

In the north, Washington State, with its wide open T attack, could win the Rose Bowl trip since the ex-PCC members are eligible this time. For the 1961 game, the FWF takes Southern California is the No. 1 choice in the South with a big, aggressive line, more speed than usual and a sparkling quarterback, Willie Wood.

California has experience in both the line and backfield at quarterback where Larry Parquet, last year's understudy to Joe Kapp, takes over.

At Oregon, Coach Len Casanova has a young squad and hopes to duplicate the defensive feats of 1958 when the Webfoots limited foes to an average of five points per game. Dave Grosz directs the attack.

COP once again banks on halfback Dick Bass, the leading collegian rusher, ground gainer and scorer of 1958. At San Jose, the emphasis is on passing with both Emmett Lee and Mike Jones capable throwers and big end Don Colchico one of the better receivers.

Pirates Improved; Strong Backfield

Third in a series on prospects of varsity football teams in the new Marin County Athletic League.

By GLENN BECKER

Things are looking up at San Anselmo, where Coach Bob Franceschini has been preparing an almost entirely new version of the Drake High football team for the maiden season of the new Marin County Athletic League.

With only five lettermen returning from last year's squad that didn't win a game, Franceschini has looked to the juniors from 1958's undefeated JV team to move the Pirates back up the ladder.

The Drake mentor is very high on his backfield. "We have some fine running backs, including four speedy juniors. One of the most promising is Scott Moriarty, a stocky 185-pounder who runs very hard. Three other juniors whom we are counting on are Lou Ramsay, Mike Bresnan and Doug Rouix."

BACK RETURNS

Only one member from last year's starting backfield, halfback Frank Divita, is returning. Frank is a speedster who improved much in the last part of the 1958 season.

Franceschini expects no problems from the quarterback position, with Sam Johnson and Dave LaBeck, both JV stars a year ago, vying for the starting role.

While Drake has a fine crew of backs, the Pirates do not have such an abundance of linemen. With the exception of the tackle spots, the line is so shallow that a single injury would be disastrous. Senior Doug Bock will anchor the interior line. Because of the lack of reserves, Franceschini plans to alternate the husky 195-pounder between guard and tackle. Opposite Bock at guard will probably be Don Dearmond, a senior.

Bock will stay at guard if the other tackle prospects pan out. They include Paul White, a 200-pound senior with good speed, and juniors Mark Scott and Dave Peck. Franceschini singled out Scott as "a very strong boy. He should help us."

The probable starting ends are senior letterman Warren Miller, and Bill Collins, a big 6-3, 195-pound junior up from the JVs. Franceschini is very high on Collins, a good receiver.

SENIOR CENTERS

Alden Sievers and Jim Shepard, both seniors, are struggling for the center position. Coach Franceschini will be quite satisfied no matter who wins. The Drake pilot has been pleased by both so far in practice.

To a great extent, Franceschini feels, injuries will determine how far Drake will go this year. If his linemen, especially, stay healthy, Drake could have a winning season.

Franceschini will run his troops through a dress-rehearsal scrimmage tomorrow. The first game is on Sept. 26, against Anahy.

JOHNSON PICK OVER ANTHONY IN TV FIGHT

BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI)—Heavyweight contender Alonzo Johnson is favored at 8-5 to beat Tony Anthony in their TV fight tonight and send the slender New Yorker back to the light heavyweight division.

Their 10-rounder at the Baltimore Coliseum will be televised and broadcast nationally by NBC.

Johnson of Braddock, Pa., is unusually fast for a heavyweight. He lost only two of his 19 starts. His 17 victories include five knockouts. He is rated eighth among contenders by the NBA and 10th by the Ring Magazine. He never was stopped.

Anthony, a speedy combination boxer-puncher, is ranked in the light heavyweight (175-pound) division—fourth by the NBA and fifth by the Ring. Despairing of getting another shot at Archie Moore's L.H. crown, he is now campaigning as a heavy.

Ducks Unltd. Film At MRGC Meeting

Marin Rod and Gun Club's regular monthly meeting tonight will be highlighted by the showing of a Ducks Unlimited moving picture, "The Great Country." The color film features Canada and Alaska.

The meeting, in the MRGC clubhouse at Point San Quentin, will begin at 8 o'clock.

COLLEGE ROUNDUP

LSU, Rice Clash In Nat'l TV Tilt

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The "knock over the champ" campaign, a favorite autumn pastime, gets off to a ringing start tomorrow in a near full-scale opening of the college football season.

Louisiana State, unbeaten and untied in 1958 and picked to repeat as national champion, launches its campaign against upset-minded Rice Institute at Baton Rouge, La. The game will be televised nationally by NBC.

LSU has lost little of the speed and muscle which carried it through 10 straight victories and a triumph in the Sugar Bowl. It is rated a 14-point favorite.

Despite the presence of Billy Cannon, the Tigers' 200-pound speed merchant, Louisiana State fears the game may be one of its toughest obstacles. Rice Coach Jess Neely is renowned for getting his teams riled up against heavily-favored foes.

A battle of Dixie giants takes place at Chapel Hill, N.C., where North Carolina plays Clemson in a game which may point the finger at the probable Atlantic Coast Conference champion.

North Carolina, ranked 12th in the Associated Press poll, is composed of husky, talented giants which the late Jim Tatum assembled before he died unexpectedly from a massive virus attack. Clemson, rated No. 18, is back with a team which was able to win eight games last season. North Carolina is a six point pick.

Mississippi, No. 8, plays a night game at Houston. It is a 13-point favorite.

Purdue, No. 11, is a two-touchdown choice over UCLA in an intersectional battle at Los Angeles tonight. Texas Christian, No. 13, is given a 20-point bulge over Kansas at Fort Worth. Texas, rated 17th nationally, is 13 points over Nebraska at Nebraska.

Four Southern games, one in the East and one on the Pacific Coast are figured so close that the odds sheets give you your choice. These are Georgia Tech at Kentucky, Duke at South Carolina, Alabama at Georgia, William & Mary at Virginia, West Virginia at Maryland and California-Washington State at Spokane.

Navy and Pittsburgh, two of the Eastern powers, are both heavily favored. Navy is a 13-point pick over Boston College at Boston and Pitt is 14 over Marquette at Milwaukee.

SAN FRANCISCO — The burden was on Sam Jones the other day when the Braves came to town. Now it shifts to Johnny Antonelli with the Dodgers on deck tonight in Seals Stadium.

While it is true that the pitcher carries the prime responsibility, it is equally true that his teammates are obligated to get him some runs.

No team can win a ball game unless it scores at least one run which the Giants couldn't do against Lew Burdette's wizardry.

If the 1959 World Series is to have its National League site in Candlestick Park, Giant batters must give Antonelli better help than they gave Jones Wednesday.

Jones didn't let the Giants down against the Braves who aren't shutout easily. He held them to six singles and one two-out double. The double went scoreless.

Two of the singles, with a walk sandwiched in the middle, accounted for one run. Three of the four other singles were clustered together with two out and they spelled the second run in that highly important 2-0 victory for the Braves.

JUST ONE of those runs was enough for Burdette whose Wednesday masterpiece was his top performance of the year, a beautiful clutch job.

Burdette, in complete control from the first to last out, allowed only six Giants to reach first base. Two of them got as far as second but no farther. Three two-out singles, a two-out double in the last inning, and one other single following the only walk he gave, accounted for the half dozen Giant runners — all of them winding up in the LOB column of the fine print box score summary.

THE DODGER pitchers for the three-game series starting tonight — Don Drysdale, Sandy Koufax and Johnny Podres —

49ers Claim Back Released By Colts

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The San Francisco 49ers yesterday beefed up their injury-riddled backfield by claiming halfback Lenny Lyles of the Baltimore Colts.

Lyles, put on waivers by the Colts, was their first draft choice in 1958, but has been unable to crack the world champs' backfield. He is a 203-pound speedster with a 9.7 second clocking in the 100 who specializes in runbacks. He played his undergraduate ball at Louisville.

Lyle will accompany the team to Salt Lake tomorrow for the game against the New York Giants. He may even see action inasmuch as backs Hugh McElhenny, Joe Perry and Jim Pace are shelved by injuries.

Perry has a sprained ankle and McElhenny bruised ribs. Pace is still in a San Francisco hospital with a twisted knee, but the extent of the injury has not been determined.

would like to be as tough as Burdette was. They can be.

Drysdale's record against the Giants is 3-2. The two he lost were 2-0 and 5-0 shutouts hurled by Sam Jones. The three he won were tight ones, 2-1 twice and 3-2. One of those 2-1 wins was a 13-inning thriller.

Podres is 2-0 against the Giants, one by a 3-2 score, the other an 8-0 shutout that was a no-hitter for 7½ innings and wound up as a two-hit blanking.

Koufax is 1-1, his win being posted Aug. 31 when he fanned 18 Giants to break the all-time National League record of 17 held by Dizzy Dean and tied Bob Feller's all-time major league mark.

Those are the kind of men the Giants must hit. There also is Roger Craig, if needed by the Dodgers, regardless of rotation schedules. Craig is 2-0 against the Giants, one of the wins as tight as they come — a 1-0 shutout against Jones.

ROTATION routine for both Dodger and Giant pitchers now is out the window for this series is being played on a "no tomorrow" basis.

However, Antonelli is going in his regular turn tonight and so will Mike McCormick tomorrow with Jones scheduled for Sunday, also in turn.

But Jones also will be the No. 1 bullpen man behind Johnny and Mike with the fervent hope of Bill Rigney that he is not needed.

Competitive Sailing Ends This Weekend

By ALFRED MATSON

Sailors of the big boats will get their final whacks at competitive sailing for the season this weekend in the two-day regatta sponsored by the St. Francis Y. C.

However this cessation of hostilities does not mean that the real yachting buff will have to hang up his top-siders and hibernate during the winter months. Come November, the Corinthian Y. C. will stage the first event in its Midwinter Series of five races staged approximately one month apart. Nor does it apply to the cruiser clan; they too will participate in an over-the-bottom race tomorrow, also hosted by the same club. The cruisers also have an engagement on Oct. 3 to race under the auspices of the Golden Gate Y. C. The small boaters, as well, have regatta programmed well into the month of October.

The sailing fleet will have two days of racing. However, several of the classes will not participate on Saturday as they voted against two day contests and only the Sunday results are considered in point standings for the season's championship awards.

IN SUNDAY'S races the prime attraction will be the battle between the big ocean racers in Cruising Club A division. As in past years it is a struggle right down to the wire between Jim Michael's Baruna and the Orient, Tim Moseley's pride and joy. Point wise, the Baruna has 21 1/4 and the Orient 18 1/2 and it would seem that the former was in like Flynn. Yet there are a couple of factors that could upset the apperant; the Good News will make her debut in

NEWS VIEWS

By LEON C. SMITH

A little story we heard about a football practice session impressed us as worth repeating. It seems that on a somewhat complicated new play the boys were as confused as a stranger at a crossroads. They just didn't understand their assignments. Then the coach said, "Okay, fellows, let's walk through it." So they did — each man learning in slow motion what he had to do. Then the coach gave orders to run the play at full speed. This time everything went smooth as peach fuzz.

This anecdote got us to thinking what a great system this would be for all of us whenever we get all tensed up about some new problems, and hardly know how or which way to carry the ball. Instead of rushing wildly ahead, if we'd just take time to "walk through" the problem a few times we'd probably soon find that we could handle it with a minimum amount of misery.

A national magazine carried an article with the title, "Emotional Upsets Are Good For You." Maybe so . . . but they're tough on everyone around you. What's good for one isn't always good for another. But a genuine bargain in a new car is good for everyone. Right now is the time and the J. E. French Co. is the place. This is your opportunity to buy a brand new 1959 Plymouth at a big, big saving, for we are now making room for the new 1960 models. Top value for your trade-in. Too, J. E. FRENCH CO., 1542 Fourth St., San Rafael, Dodge, Plymouth, Simca distributors.

the race, Jim Wilhite has the Athene going well and Dr. Cooper's Magic must be given consideration. It is a long race, the first mark No. 7 buoy in the outside channel then to No. 7 off Treasure Island and back to line of start, 20.3 miles — so anything could happen.

Saturday's races will get underway with the Stars hitting the line at 10 a.m., followed at 10:05 by the Junior Clipper fleet. Next the PICs at 10:10, Div. 17, 10:15, Rhodes 33, 11:30,

I. C., 11:35. Div. 14, 11:40; Div. 15, 11:45; Cruising Club B, 1:05; Farallon Clipper, 1:15; Div. 9, 1:20; Div. 10, 1:25; Bird, 1:30, and Div. 11, 1:35.

Sunday will have the full program with the first start at 10 a.m. The power boat race, according to Race Chairman Marvin Cardoza, will have as the first starter, the "?? Mark" owned by Harry Doty of the Oakland Y. C. with the balance of the entries following at two-minute intervals. There are about 40 boats vying for all the important season's points as well as the race trophies so there should be some tight finishes.

RECENTLY Pat and Mary Kirrane of Belvedere sailed their new L36 up from the south and it is now berthed in the SFYC harbor. To fall back on a frayed cliché, it is the cynosure of all eyes and is handsome enough to warrant attention. Pat always was one for bright colors and his reputation remains unsullied. The Andale, as christened, is a fire engine red! It is expected that there will be at least six of the L36's on the bay by 1960 and will race as a class.

INVERNESS Y. C. is again playing host to the visiting sailor in its annual Drake's Bay cruise. All yachtsmen are invited and a big barbecue and dance will be held at the clubhouse on Saturday evening. Drake's Bay burgees will be given to the yacht owners and trophies will be passed out to the two yachts from the most distant north and south points. A trophy also will be awarded to the club with the greatest number of participants.

Rides Five Winners FLORENCE, Ky. (UP)—Clarence Meaux continued his hot riding at Latinia yesterday when he booted home five winners to run his total for 19 days to 44. Prince Torch $4.80 won the feature.

College Students Pick Council Members Today

College of Marin students went to the polls on the Kentfield campus today to fill six vacancies on the 14-member Associated Students Executive Council.

Candidates for the student governing body are as follows: Sophomore men's representative: Gary Antolini and Bob Hanson.

Sophomore women's representative: Marilyn Jakobsen, unopposed.

Freshman men's representative: Charles Bundschu, Mike Curry and Chris Fries.

Freshman women's representative: Julie Malet, Anne Royle, Debbie O'Brien, Joan Harrison and Virginia Lauberham.

Executive council secretary: Margaret Mahan, unopposed.

Commissioner of publicity: Fred Brown, unopposed.

Almonte Club Slates Election

The annual membership dinner meeting and election of directors of the Almonte Improvement Club will be held Nov. 7, directors decided.

Although the meeting normally takes place on the second Saturday in November, it will be changed this year due to a date conflict, said Mrs. Donald J. Taylor, club president.

A slate of 15 directors will be voted on at the meeting, she said. Directors will subsequently designate the club's officers.

The Australian capital of Canberra, with a population of 40,000, gets about 300,000 tourists a year.

POOL OWNERS

IF you use CHLORINE in ANY FORM it will pay you to look into the NEW CLORESE METHOD of AUTOMATIC CHLORINATION.

The work usually associated with chlorination has been virtually reduced to zero by this new development. In addition a substantial reduction in your pool operating expenses may be expected RIGHT FROM THE START.

There is no equipment to buy. Less than $2.00 a month rents the entire chlorinator system. It provides automatic chlorination daily plus super chlorination every two weeks (or as desired) completely automatically.

Four To Attend Savings Conclave

Four San Rafael savings association executives will attend the 69th annual convention of the California Savings and Loan League next Monday through Wednesday in Los Angeles.

They are Fred F. Enemark, executive vice president of the Marin County Savings and Loan Assn., and R. Keith Dearth, president, Esther M. Dearth, vice president, and E. J. Donlon, director, of Northwestern Savings and Loan Assn.

Nearly 2,000 different makes of savings accounts have been offered to the American public at one time or another.

CAMPUS VOTE RESULT

College Students Prefer Magazine To Newspaper

The College of Marin student body has voted for continuation of the Mariner, monthly college magazine, in preference to resuming publication of the weekly campus newspaper.

The newspaper, also called the Mariner, was discontinued last February.

First issue of the pocket-sized magazine appeared in March. Its subtitle is "A Journal of Campus Life and Opinion."

Published by students of the journalism laboratory, the magazine contains articles of general campus interest, student essays, short stories and poetry, editorials, cartoons and pictures of campus life.

When they registered for the fall term this month, students were asked to choose between a magazine issued about four times a semester, plus a mimeographed Associated Students Beacon issued twice weekly, or a weekly newspaper reporting all campus activities.

Irwin P. Diamond, dean of men, said opinion was closely divided, with the magazine and the Beacon, a one-sheet newsletter, winning out "by 40 or 50 votes."

A total of $1,000 in student body funds has been earmarked for student publications during the 1959-60 school year.

James Heig, journalism teacher, is faculty adviser to the magazine staff.

Before coming under Russian rule in 1809, Finland was a province of Sweden for nearly 500 years.

Vincent S. Yoder, Charter R. Moore and James D. Urguhart. The benefit will be a Wine Tasting Party on Sept. 26.

dames Rolla B. Hess and Clyde J. Curley Jr., are toasting the success of the benefit to be held at the Rolla B. Hess home in Kent Woodlands.

Parties To Follow Sorority's Benefit

The fall benefit of Alpha Omicron Pi Marin Alumnae will be a Wine Tasting Party to be held at the Kent Woodlands home of Dr. and Mrs. Rolla B. Hess, from 5 to 7 o'clock on Saturday, Sept. 26.

The chairman, Mrs. Clyde J. Curley, will be assisted by Mrs. George Herrero, in charge of tickets. Proceeds from the benefit will go to the endowed bed supported by the Ross Hospital Volunteer Service and Alpha Omicron Pi Marin Alumnae. Several dinner parties will follow the wine tasting party. Among hostesses will be Mrs. Vincent S. Yoder of San Rafael, Mrs. Robert Coolidge of Mill Valley, and Mrs. Rolla B. Hess of Kentfield.

Dinner guests of Mrs. George Herrero will include Messrs.

and Mesdames Leonard Ward, James Kirkwood, Ward Wise-carver and Norman Johnsen.

Social Service Auxiliary Plans Three Sessions For Orientation

The first of three sessions of an Orientation Course for new members of the Social Service Auxiliary will begin on Thursday, Sept. 24.

The Rev. James D. O'Shea, director of the Auxiliary will offer Mass at 9:15 o'clock at St. Sebastian's Church in Greenbrae. Following Mass, a light breakfast will be served.

Mrs. George Garamoni, president of the Auxiliary will introduce Mrs. Roger Yore, vice president in charge of the neophytes and orientation program; Rev. O'Shea, Marin County director of Social Service Agency in San Rafael and Sister Elfreida. They will speak on the workings of the Auxiliary which help to further the agency's program. A homemaker service, camperships and educational funds are some of the services made possible by the agency's work in the community.

The two remaining meetings are scheduled for Oct. 1 and Oct. 8 at the agency office at 1017 D street, San Rafael. Coffee will be served at 10 o'clock, the meetings to start promptly at 10:30 a.m.

SECOND SESSION

The second session will include an explanation of the duties of the secretarial staffs of the agency and Auxiliary by Mrs. William Trewartha, motor and welfare committees by Mrs. Bernard Conroy and Catholic action by Mrs. John Campion.

Movies of the Auxiliary's activities for the past two years will be shown by the director.

Members speaking on the different categories of the volunteer program at the last meeting will be Mesdames meeting will be: publicity, Mesdames John Merryman; toys, Arthur Fay; social activities, Gus Niederholzer; sewing, Fred Enemark, and dolls, Mert Hipsley.

Serving on the executive board for the year are president, Mrs. George Garamoni; first vice president, Mrs. Roger Yore; second vice president, Mrs. Charles O. Jones; recording secretary, Mrs. William Deeger; corresponding secretary, Mrs. John De Maria; treasurer, Mrs. Victor Earl; nominating chairman, Mrs. Grant Halsing; members at large, Mrs. Arthur Fay, and Mrs. Louis Pometta.

CHAIRMEN

Chairmen for the year include, dolls, Mesdames John Fracchia and Edward Barry; bulletin, Cletus Fitzharris; publicity, John Merryman and Mert Hipsley; motor corps, William Murray; sewing, Enemark; toys, Eugene Cullen; social activities, Gus Niederholzer; United Crusade, John Egan; Catholic action, Robert Bowen; N.C.C.W., Richard Jackson; salvage, Joseph Nan-tery; clerical agency, William Trewartha; clerical auxiliary, Paul Lundberg.

The welfare chairman is Mrs. Harold Winters. An additional chairmanship this year will be assumed by Mrs. Donald Morrell, it will be known as the Lucas Valley Committee. This is not a new project for the Auxiliary as monthly entertainment programs and a visiting service have been in effect for several years. Because of the increased activity in this program a separate chairman was deemed necessary.

The Catholic Social Service Agency is a member of the United Crusade.

Sigma Kappa Meeting Set Wednesday

"Child Discipline" will be the topic of discussion at the Marin County Alumnae of Sigma Kappa's meeting on Wednesday evening, Sept. 23, at the home of president Mrs. Arthur Jollymour Jr., 22 Claire way, Belvedere-Tiburon.

A Marin County doctor will be guest speaker and will follow his talk with a question and answer period. Mrs. Robert Judd of Strawberry will co-hostess.

Sigma Kappa Sorority recently merged with another national sorority, Pi Kappa Sigma. All Marin County Pi Kappa Alumnae are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Music Listening

The Music Listening section of Marin Branch, American Association of University Women, will meet Sunday at 7 p.m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Meyer, San Rafael. This couples' group was formed last spring and welcomes anyone interested in listening to good music.

Sausalito Yacht Auxiliary To Host Theater Party

The Women's Auxiliary of the Sausalito Yacht Club held a general meeting recently with Mrs. F. P. Fromhagen, president, presiding.

New members were welcomed into the Auxiliary, and reports were heard from the chairmen of the project committees.

The Champagne Theater Party under the direction of Mrs. Robin Hobart will be held on Nov. 7 at the Cove Players Theater in Tiburon. The play will be "The Tunnel of Love" and champagne will be served at the first intermission. The Auxiliary has taken the theater for that evening and those wishing tickets may call Mrs. J. Enzensperger.

The Rummage Sale will be held Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 10 and 11; on Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Sunday, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Location is the Sausalito Yacht Clubhouse in Sausalito behind the Bank of America building. Mrs. Neil Munro is in charge of the project.

Dr. Andrews To Address Sausalito Club

Mrs. Charles H. Merrill Jr. is chairman for the first of the Sausalito Woman's Club program days Thursday, Sept. 24. The speaker is Dr. William Andrews of Ross Valley Clinic. His topic will be "Hypnosis in Medicine."

A 1940 graduate of the College of Medicine, University of Illinois, Dr. Andrews was psychiatrist in the U.S. Navy for eight years. Now engaged in general practice, he is specializing in psychosomatic medicine. The speaker is a member of the Mental Hygiene Committee, California Academy of General Practice and of The American Society of Clinical Hypnosis. With the current interest in his subject, a large and attentive audience is anticipated.

Greeting members and their guests at the door will be Mesdames Frank Bosl and Delman D. Smith with Mrs. George M. Erickmeyer in charge of the guest book. Following the program, the tea hour is to be enhanced with background music, and a new idea of Mrs. Richard F. Phillips, president. Mrs. Matthew J. Dooley will be at the piano. Assisting the tea chairman, Mrs. Justin M. Day, will be Mesdames Bernard J. Grattana and Carl W. Spring, with Mesdames Robert F. Crowell and Jacques Neuville pouring and Mrs. John C. Alexander responsible for flower decorations.

Section Enjoys Buffet Dinner

Members of the Design for Living Section, Marin Branch, American Assn. of University Women and their guests recently enjoyed a buffet dinner in the torch-lighted garden of the Claude Felland home in Ross. Attending the grill and serving sizzling steaks to 60 people were Dr. R. C. Spaan and Eric Wilkinson.

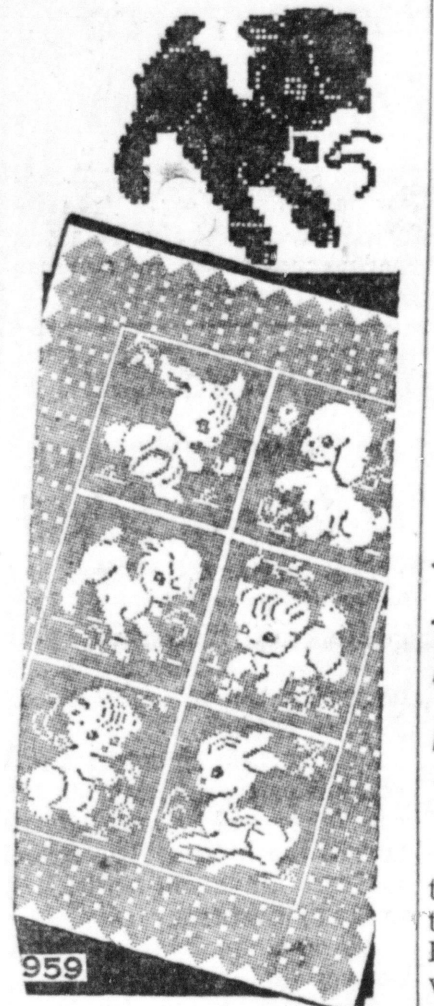

This party was another of the group's "fun for funds" events held for the benefit of AAUW's new national headquarters building in Washington, D.C. With the successful summer affairs behind, Marin branch is well past the half-way mark of its goal, and hopes to complete its part in the fund raising within the year.

Committee chairmen were Mesdames Philip McCormick, Eric Wilkinson, and Thomas Stenstrom.

Mothers' Guild Kaffe Klatsch To Be Wednesday

The welfare of 800 children, the common purpose served by the faculty and members of St. Raphael's Mothers' Guild, provided the theme for the brief address of welcome given by the Rev. Daniel McAllister at Wednesday's afternoon meeting in the school auditorium.

After greeting the more than 100 members assembled for this first meeting of the school year, Father McAllister, the parish administrator, went on to outline the aims of the organization and to thank the group for its unfailing support of this common goal.

The same theme of welcome was reiterated by Mrs. David Vattuone, guild president, after which she introduced her panel of officers and chairmen of standing committees. She then gave a brief resume of forthcoming activities, which included plans for this weekend's Fall Fashion Carnival, a buffet luncheon scheduled for Oct. 7, and a Christmas bazaar.

Special stress was placed on the announcement of a kaffe klatsch, slated for Wednesday, Sept. 23, in the school cafeteria at 10:15 a.m. Mothers of first grade children and of all new students are the invited guests. Of particular interest to those members active in the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine was the introduction of Sister Sheila of the Sisters of Social Service by Sister Roseann. The latter is soon to be transferred to other duties.

Volunteers for continued guild participation in the work of the county well-baby clinic were requested by Mrs. Dominic Pensabene, chairman of the child clinic program.

Refreshments were served at the close of the business session, with mothers of fourth grade students serving as hostesses. This phase of the afternoon's activities was under the chairmanship of Room Mothers Mrs. William Descalzo and Mrs. Caesar Taverna.

Festival Will Feature Big Carnival Section

The biggest carnival section the Sunny Hills Grape Festival has ever had will be in operation on Saturday, Oct. 3, when the sixtieth annual event takes place. Not only will they operate just on Grape Festival hours, but the "Gold Coast" rides will open on Friday evening from 6 to 10 p.m., Grape Festival Saturday from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m., and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Mrs. Robert Elliott of Ross, a member of the Sunny Hills Junior Auxiliary, who is in charge of the GAYWAY and its attractions for children, feels this will create much extra interest in the county. She also states that the total booths in the Gayway itself total more than ever before.

Gold Coast rides will include a gigantic ferris wheel, a tilt-a-whirl, an octopus, a super merry-go-round and many rides for smaller children.

The atmosphere for the Gayway this year is keyed to a circus theme with a sweet shop serving pink lemonade, ice cream and popcorn.

A bonus feature includes a grand prize booth with prizes for winners in the various games.

Popular pony rides will attract the usual young "horsy" set. Husbands of Junior Auxiliary members, as well as "Eagles" from the enrollees at Sunny Hills, will help in this activity.

Additional fun for children and teenagers will include grab bags, baseball throw, ring toss, balloon dart, target game, bean bags and a dime pitch booth.

Each year the Makeup Booth is a delight of the young girls who are made up to look like debutantes, and it will be enlarged to take care of more girls than ever before this year.

Sunny Hills Junior Auxiliary takes the complete responsibility of the GAYWAY each

THIS COSTUME modeled by Mrs. J. A. Wruburton, left, will be featured in the fashion parade on Tuesday when the San Rafael General Hospital and the Women's Auxiliary will be honored at the Fashion Focus Luncheon at Rickey's Rancho Rafael. Costumes that might have been worn by visitors to the hospital 54 years ago will be modeled and the hospital's anniversary will also be observed. Admiring the costume are, left to right, Mesdames Roy H. Powers, George Henderson and A. G. Somerville. (Independent-Journal photo)

Luncheon Will Mark Hospital Anniversary

Fashionwise and otherwise, there have been a lot of changes in Marin County since 1905.

Some of these changes will be discussed in interesting detail at the weekly Fashion Focus Luncheon at Rickey's Tuesday, Sept. 22, when San Rafael General Hospital and its Women's Auxiliary will be saluted. Subjects "People Are Talking About," theme of the event, will include the founding of the hospital in September 1905. In observance of the anniversary, the fashion parade will have costumes that might have been worn by visitors at the hospital 54 years ago.

Guests at Tuesday's luncheon will have a chance to compare these with outfits a hospital visitor might wear today. For example, the 1959 costume might be a light wool jacket dress or a soft tweed suit. Or, if the weather was still warm, which it is likely to be in Marin in the early fall, the modern (fall 1959) visitor might choose a smart but oh-so-cool-and-comfortable transitional dark cotton.

The new dark cotton might be a plaid or a print, dressed "up" with hat, gloves and high heels, or dressed "down", without hat and gloves, and perhaps with low heels or flats.

But whether the hospital visitor's costume is a wool dress, suit, or a transitional cotton, it might be glamorized with some of the exciting new costume jewelry and handbags that "People Are Talking About" as style highlights for fall.

Members of the Women's Auxiliary of San Rafael General Hospital will model both old and new fashions, with the latter coming from a Marin shop. Regular and half-sizes will be shown, in not only daytime but cocktail, dinner and evening wear. Hair styles will be from a Marin salon.

A nurse's uniform of the early 1900s also is planned for the style show.

Mrs. Patricia Leonard, director of nurses at San Rafael General, and a group of other nurses from the hospital will be luncheon guests of Mrs. Lawrence P. McNear, Auxiliary president.

Also invited as special guests are Mrs. James Welton of San

Sun Valley Club Pot Luck Dinner Planned Thursday

A potluck dinner and music will be the recipe for an evening of fun for the families of Sun Valley School children on Thursday, Sept. 24.

Final plans were made recently at the home of Fred Holzinger, program chairman of the Parents Club. Members of the committee attending were Mrs. Mack Lancaster, who will be in charge of serving the coffee and will also help with the decorating, Roy Troutman who will assist Fred Holzinger with various K.P. duties, and Mrs. Fred Holzinger who will be in charge of serving the food.

Assisting the committee will be Mrs. Don Dewing, who is planning novel and original decorations for the tables by using many kitchen utensils, with flowers and vegetables for color accent, and Mrs. Roy Troutman who will assist with both food and decorating.

The New Lard

MISS ORTNER TAKES VOWS

On return from their honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. John Van Soest will reside in Sacramento. The bride, the former Janice Ortner, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas A. Ortner of San Rafael.

The wedding took place last Sunday afternoon at the Wedding Chapel in Sacramento. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, had her sister, Mrs. Paul B. Ware of San Rafael as her matron of honor. The bridegroom's brother, Peter Van Soest, was best man, and Francis Thomas, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was the usher. All are residents of Sacramento.

The wedding reception took place at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Van Soest of Sacramento.

The bride, a graduate of San Rafael High School, is employed by the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. John, who is in business with his father in the Art Shop in Sacramento, is a graduate of Sacramento High School.

Guild Readies For Grape Festival At Vinegar Pouring

An annual "vinegar pouring" was held recently in the lovely garden patio of Mrs. Leslie Daggett, 13 Peninsula road, Belvedere by members of Sunny Hills Belvedere Guild No. 4.

Among those present were Mrs. E. Allan Steinau Jr., chairman of the Vinegar Committee, Mrs. Robert Evans, Guild president and Mrs. James Contos, booth chairman.

The group nearly completed the pouring, sealing and decorating of the many sized bottles of tarragon, mint, garlic, herb and wine vinegar. These will be available at the 60th annual Grape Festival, Saturday, Oct. 3 at Sunny Hills. The large quantity that will be available this year is due to the contribution of the Sebastiani Winery at Sonoma and from Spice Islands.

Other items that will be for sale at the large Belvedere booth are imported tea, plum and peach chutney as well as imported toys and stuffed animals, for children from six months to 60 years. New items to be introduced at the booth this year will be teak serving bowls and tomato chutney, as well as spiced orange and grapefruit slices.

Officers of Belvedere Guild No. 4 are Mesdames Robert Evans, president; John Mayer, vice president; C. J. Lennihan, secretary; Leslie Daggett treasurer; James Contos, booth chairman, and Charles Partridge, publicity chairman.

'Pep' Pills Constitute New Hazard To Our Teen-Agers

Ever take a "pep pill?" Not a tranquillizer, but a capsule to increase your energy? Pep pills are a new hazard to teen-agers. I've been talking to some boys who took them. They have big allowances. They were members of a secret club. They tried alcohol at their parties. Their parents caught on, and made them stop. Then one of the boys stole pep pills from the family medicine chest. He passed them around. The kids liked them. Soon he found a "pusher" who sold pep pills.

The pusher suggested the boys take sleeping capsules along with the pep pills. That really jangled their nervous systems. Four of the boys started taking the combination every day. It is as bad as dope. Soon they were "hooked." All four have had nervous breakdowns. Their parents have placed them in sanitariums.

Cops tell me that pep pills are available in all parts of the country. So are sleeping capsules. Very few teen-agers use real narcotics. But a good many now take pep pills regularly.

Where do they buy them? Sometimes from crooked druggists. Sometimes from young men who work at cheap service stations. Most big cities have pushers who hang around high schools, peddling the things. Law enforcement against pep pills and sleeping capsules needs strengthening.

Q—"My boys are 7 and 9. My husband says that when they start fighting I should look the other way. He wants me to let them fight it out. Do you agree?" —L.O.W.

A) No, I don't. You should stop their fights. Try to find out who is to blame and make a fair settlement. Don't let them fight it out.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, Sept. 18, the 261st day of the year, with 104 more days in 1959.

The moon is in its full phase. The morning star is Venus.

The evening stars are Mercury, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

On this date in history:
In 1769, the Boston Gazette reported that the first piano made in this country was a spinet manufactured by one John Harris.

In 1793, President George Washington laid the cornerstone of the Capitol Building in Washington.

In 1851, the New York Times published its first issue.

In 1927, the Columbia Broadcasting System went on the air with a basic network of 16 stations.

In 1931, Japan began the occupation of Manchuria marking the beginning of the Sino-Japanese War.

A thought for today: American educator and writer Will Durant said: "The finger that turns the dial rules the air."

SURPRISE!—William O'Shaughnessy works with sprayer on refinishing car at Bianco Motors—the same job he's been on for 25 years. He was doing just this sort of work until he knocked off for lunch today and suddenly found himself guest of honor at a surprise party.

AUTO FIRM HONOREE

He Started 'Just One Job,' Stayed 25 Years

William O'Shaughnessy Jr., now works for PG&E in Santa Rosa. Another brother, Jack, is with LaFargue Laundry and Dry Cleaners in San Rafael.

Bill finds relaxation from his work in fishing and sports. He is a member of Marin Rod and Gun Club, Wilkins Post of American Legion, and Local 238 of the International Assn. of Machinists.

He hit the beaches at Guadalupe and Leyte during his World War II service as a combat engineer. His home now is at 49 Meadow avenue, San Rafael, with his wife, Marjorie, and her two children. Mrs. O'Shaughnessy's first husband, Emanuel Peter Larsen, was killed in World War II. The children are Judith, who will enter San Francisco State College this month, and Nancy, a sophomore at San Rafael High School.

O'Shaughnessy was born in San Anselmo and attended schools there. His father, Harry O'Shaughnessy, was a Pacific Gas and Electric Co. employee, and a brother, Harry Jr., now works for PG&E in Santa Rosa. Another brother, Jack, is with LaFargue Laundry and Dry Cleaners in San Rafael.

IN GOOD TIME—Instructor Gordon Chan times a rope climber in a tumbling class in the Saturday morning physical education program at Sir Francis Drake High School for grade schoolers. Director Bob Fitzhenry has promised more specialty classes in the program this year.

Rep. Miller To Speak On Park Plan

Rep. Clement W. Miller will be guest speaker at the first membership meeting of the Pt. Reyes National Seashore Foundation at 8 p.m., Sept. 30 in Olney Hall, College of Marin.

In making the announcement Mrs. Norman B. Livermore of Ross, chairman pro tem of the foundation, said: "We feel very fortunate to have Congressman Miller at our first meeting. I hope all interested Marin residents will take advantage of this opportunity to hear the latest report from Washington on the status of the Pt. Reyes proposal."

Also on the program is a recently completed color film of the Pt. Reyes Peninsula.

K. Of C. Board Names Officers

Officers of the Archbishop Edward J. Hanna General Fourth Degree Assembly of the Knights of Columbus recently were installed at Rickey's Rancho Rafael, Ignacio.

Installed were Rev. ### Inmates Suspicious

COLUMBIA, S. C. (AP)—The prison newspaper polled convicts at the South Carolina Penitentiary for their reaction to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's visit to the United States.

"It's okay for him to come and talk peace," said one inmate, "but keep an eye on him."

Civic Center Bid Call Seen Within Month

Within a month, the board of supervisors will probably call for bids on the county civic center project, Planning Director Mary Summers told the Sausalito Rotary Club yesterday.

She said she expects both the proposed first and second construction stages, plus site developments, would be included.

Her announcement came as she reviewed highlights in the history of the project. She recalled that in 1954 the county had an option on the property at a price of $254,000 which was allowed to lapse. When efforts were renewed later to purchase the land, the price rose to $377,000, she said.

After futile condemnation efforts, the ultimate purchase price came to $426,000. She pointed out, however, that $230,000 came from state funds derived from pari-mutuel income and earmarked for county fairs. The balance came from the county general fund.

Robert Rogers introduced the speaker. George C. Elington presided.

Entertainment, Style Show Scheduled For Auto Event

A program of entertainment and a fashion show, as well as presentation of trophies, will highlight the concours d'elegance Sept. 27 at Forest Meadows, Dominican College, San Rafael.

The event is sponsored by the Catholic Social Service Agency of Marin, in cooperation with the San Francisco Sports Car Club of America and the San Rafael Horseless Carriage Club.

Membership in either club is not necessary to enter a car in the concours d'elegance.

Dick Cook, KSFO disc jockey and sports car enthusiast, will be master of ceremonies.

On the entertainment program will be the Bondanzas, a brother and sister dancing act; members of the Marin County Chapter of the Society for the Preservation of Barbershop Singing, and the Sweet Adelines, and the Belles of the Gay Nineties, a singing, dancing and instrumental group of grandmothers.

Model in the fashion show will be members of the Senior and Junior Catholic Social Service Auxiliaries and members of the Horseless Carriage Club of San Rafael. Fashions will include modern styles and those from the horseless carriage era.

Tami Evans of Mill Valley, this year's Miss Marin, will present trophies to winners in the various categories of autos.

Registration forms are available at the Catholic Social Service Agency office in San Rafael or from chairman Earl Grady at 1 Marin Court drive, San Rafael.
